Hospital fails over wait time targets

A FIFTH of patients visiting Stafford Hospital's A&E department last month had to wait longer than four hours.

The board of directors running the unit were due to discuss its long-term future this week.

Latest figures show that the department is performing below target.

In January, 78.8 per cent of patients were seen within four hours – the target figure is 95 per cent.

An improvement has been recorded so far this month, with "performance for the year" climbing to 87.9 per cent.

Concern

In a report which was due to be presented to trust bosses on Wednesday, performance director Kathryn Magson says the unit is "not progressing well" concerning waiting times but she says action has been taken to improve "patient flow" through the department.

Chief Operating Officer Maggie Oldham said: "We apologise to patients who have had an extended wait in our emergency department."

Under proposals being considered by the Staffordshire Cluster of PCTs this week, an "urgent and emergency care model" could be introduced at Stafford from October 31 this year.

£1m deal set for ex-Pitman

FORMER Hednesford Town striker Tyrone Barnett has joined Championship side Peterborough on loan with a view to a £1 million permanent switch in the summer.

Barnett, aged 26, left the Pitmen for Macclesfield Town two years ago before moving to Crawley Town, where he has impressed this season by scoring 14 goals in League Two.

The fee would break the League Two transfer record and Barnett is expected to sign a four-year contract with Posh.

Gifts of cash flood in to help rescued husky regain sight

Lisa Carter, left, Robert Hyden, Danielle Thomas and Thunder

DONATIONS have come flooding in for an urgent appeal to find funds so that a husky dog can have a sight-saving eye operation.

Owner Rob Hyden needs to find £4,500 in the next five months so that Thunder, who was rescued from poor living conditions when he was five months old, can receive treatment for cataracts.

Just under half of the amount needed has been raised so far, mostly thanks to the fundraising efforts of Ruth Dewis and Pauline Roberts, who re-home dogs across Cannock Chase.

And the fundraising pot is set to be boosted further by Specsavers in Cannock, which is donating £1 from every sight test until March 20 after staff read about Thunder's plight in The Chronicle.

Store director Martin Shaw said: "When we read the story we immediately thought it would be great to offer our support," he added.

"This is a really easy way for people to show their support, so if anyone's eye test is due shortly or anyone is overdue for a check-up, they should book an appointment now and help Thunder too."

Mr Hyden is also taking part in a fundraising walk tomorrow (Friday 24) from Rugeley Fire Station to Lichfield and Cannock fire stations and back again, a trek of 25 miles which has already yielded £400 in sponsorship.

"I can't believe how many people are getting involved in our appeal," said Mr Hyden, who works part time at Hawksyard Priory in Armitage and sold his car to help fund the operation.

"Ruth and Pauline have been absolutely brilliant."

Thunder, now 22 months old, is 85 per cent blind in one eye and 40 per cent blind in the other. If he doesn't receive an operation within the next six months, the condition will become permanent and he will go blind.

Anyone who can help is urged to call Ruth on 07900 090993 or Pauline 07971 817877. Alternatively, make a donation or book an appointment at Specsavers, in Cannock Shopping Centre, on www.specsavers.co.uk/cannock or on 01543 462232.

Jail for driver in 95mph pursuit

A BANNED Cannock motorist who drove a sports car at up to 95mph during a 10-mile police chase has been jailed.

Kraig Bellion, aged 33, had been drinking and was a banned driver when he got behind the wheel of his girlfriend's Audi TT.

He was followed by police on the A442 from Telford into Bridgnorth where the pursuit ended when the Audi hit a parked car.

At Shrewsbury Crown Court on Tuesday Bellion was jailed for a total of 14 months – to start after he completes a 12-week sentence imposed at another court earlier this month.

Dreadful

Bellion, of The Firs Mobile Home Park, near Cannock, was also banned from driving for four years and must take an extended test.

He had admitted dangerous driving, driving while disqualified, with excess alcohol, without insurance and failing to stop for police on September 24 last year.

In April last year Bellion was given a suspended four-month sentence for excess alcohol by Mid-Staffordshire magistrates.

Judge Robin Onions said that Bellion had a "dreadful" driving record and this was his sixth excess alcohol offence and his third for driving when banned.

Mr Denis Desmond, for Bellion, said his client drove the car to find his girlfriend after she walked off, because he was worried about her.

Pupils raise cancer cash

STUDENTS from Rugeley Sixth Form Academy raised hundreds of pounds for a cancer charity.

Teenagers at the Taylors Lane school made £658 which they have handed over to Macmillan Cancer Support.

Their fundraising events included a cake sale.

CEMETERY WORK TO TAKE A YEAR

WORKERS are set to start a year-long project to transform a 12-acre plot into an 8,000-space cemetery in Great Wyrley. The scheme is expected to get under way this spring, with the cemetery due to open early in 2013.

By Mark Mudie

The site will ease a shortage of burial plots in the village and neighbouring Cheslyn Hay, and is expected to meet demand for two generations.

Developer and landowner Ken Lees has gifted a 12-acre site to South Staffordshire Council and a deal has now been struck on the burial site plans.

An area the size of five rugby pitches off Upper Landwood Lane will become Strawberry Lane Cemetery.

A crest-shaped road will enclose a cemetery for cremated remains, while a tree-lined pathway will mark the western edge of the development.

Buried remains will be laid to rest on the eastern side of the site.

Conversions

The land has a market value of £250,000 but was given to the district council by father-of-three Mr Lees, who grew up in Great Wyrley.

Council bosses opened talks with Mr Lees, of Teddesley Park, near Penkridge, last year and announced this week that a deal had been signed.

Mr Lees, who runs KGL Estates, based in Cannock, said the detailed drawings showed that it would be a "really nice" development for the area.

The 75-year-old grandfather has no plans to retire after a 52-year career in development.

His company has built 50 cottages at 1,200-acre Teddesley Park in Penkridge, as well as completing a number of barn conversions at the site, while down the decades thousands of homes have been erected by the developer.

"People that retire too early are wishing their lives away," said Mr Lees.

"To be working is a great thing. At the moment I have got the health to do it, and I shall continue to do it."

The development is expected to cost £300,000.

South Staffordshire district councillor Joan Williams thanked Mr Lees.

She said: "We've wanted to develop a site in the north of the district for quite some time."

"Thanks to Ken Lees's generous offer we have been able to do it a lot quicker than we would have otherwise been able to do."

Holly Anderton and Jamie Mitchell, back, along with Emily Vipond and Freddie Collins, front, having fun

Half-term is all fun at school

YOUNGSTERS in Rugeley got crafty and staved off the half-term boredom at a holiday club in school.

Rugeley Searchlight Holiday Club ran activities including crafts, games, singing and dancing, with the theme for the week being recycling.

The children also designed flowers from sweet wrappers and decorated bird tables to be donated to Rugeley schools.

Alison Ball organised the week at Churchfields Primary School, in Sandy Lane.

She said: "We have 30 children attend and it went really well. Special thanks go to Churchfields for being so accommodating."

AN INCREDIBLE NEW FORM OF HEATING FROM GERMANY

Advertisement

This incredible heating could be the answer to help beat the ever increasing energy costs and amazingly, it is not, gas or oil, or solid fuel - but electric! It's clean, simple to install, Powerful, Economical, and no more servicing costs - EVER! All you need is a normal electricity supply and a plug socket and NO standard tariff like economy seven.

In Germany, Austria, Eastern Europe and even America, more and more people are choosing to heat their homes and offices with this very special form of electric heating in preference to gas, oil, LPG or any other form of conventional central heating or economy seven.

Here in the Midlands more and more of our customers are making that same decision and when you see this incredible heating for yourself, you could be next! The heating looks just like a conventional radiator, but STOP! It is very, very different!

Put simply, the clunky central heating boiler needing constant servicing and replacement parts isn't the only choice any more!

Now you can choose to heat your homes, offices, extensions or conservatories with this incredible German heating which provides individual control over every single room without the need for a central control or space to site a boiler. Now the boiler space can also become a storage area!

Installation takes minutes and running is completely clean, there is no danger of leakage, no holes through walls, no floorboards up and no tradesmen trundling around the house wielding pipe cutters, hammers, wrenches and dirty work-boots. This incredible heating simply plugs in and that's it! Job Done! You can even do just one room or the whole house! Get your free info pack right away by calling 01889 576732.

Is electric heating expensive to run? You'll be amazed! Electric heating has never looked like this before, however, this is not new, it has been a mainstream form of heating for a very long time in Germany and Austria and for many people actually in preference to central heating with gas, oil or even Economy 7

Why firm is such a big noise

AN INVENTION by a Rugeley firm which reduces noise problems generated by discos, clubs and bars is being snapped up.

Sound Ceilings uses Swedish technology to lower sound by 50 per cent just a few metres away from the dance floor, deadening it completely further away.

The company will be showing off the invention at the week-long Hotelympia 2012 Exhibition in London next weekend.

The system, which can be installed as a permanent fitting or short-term for events in marquees, has become a hit with bars and hotels that have residents living nearby.

The ceilings have recently been installed at the Villa Hotel, Preston, Lancashire, which was struggling to get a late licence because of the proximity of houses, and at the famous Bounce Club on Wigan Pier following restrictions set by the council.

Neil Morten, owner of the firm, which offers the services of an in-house planning consultant to deal with applications, said: "The days of the noisy neighbour are limited.

"The effect of the installation is dramatic."

In running for sponsor

RUNNERS who are ready to put their best foot forward for charity at a popular fundraising run next month are being urged to push hard for maximum sponsorship.

Chasewater Country Park, off Pool Road in Brownhills, is hosting the Sainsbury's Sport Relief Mile on March 25. It starts at 11am, with courses of one, three and six miles.

Registration the day is from 10am to 10.45am and costs £3 for children, £6 adults and £15 for a family or at www.sportrelief.com and search Chasewater, or 01543 730607 or email chasewater@lichfieldcc.gov.uk

Litter picking

VOLUNTEERS can join in two litter picks in Etching Hill, Rugeley, later this year. The Friends of Etching Hill are holding the events on May 26 and September 15. They start at 11am from the Church of Holy Spirit in Mount Road. Anyone wishing to be involved should just turn up.

Pamela wins slimmers' vote

A BURNWOOD councillor who dropped six dress sizes in two years has helped raise £1,000 through a fundraising scheme.

Councillor Pamela Stokes, of All Saints ward, ran a campaign at St Joseph's Church to sell unwanted clothing as she and her fellow members lost weight.

All the money raised has gone to Lichfield-based St Giles Hospice and Councillor Stokes recently received a certificate from the charity, along with Slimming World consultant

Maria Steed. "It has taken around 15 months, but we are so proud of our members for raising this money," the Burnwood Town Council representative said.

Appealed

"The church has also played a part in allowing me to store the several large boxes of clothing when they are not on the rails for the group sessions."

Councillor Stokes also paid tribute to consultant Mrs Steed and appealed for anyone to continue donating unwanted clothes for the group to sell. My weight loss is all down to the support of Maria, who runs two sessions on a Tuesday and one on a Wednesday," she added.

"If anyone can help by donating saleable ladies clothing, shoes, bags, etc, I will collect it."

Councillor Stokes said she would also accept men's and children's items.

Contact her on 07837 696206 for more information, or call Mrs Steed on 07817 308631 for Slimming World details.

Cul-de-sac joy as plan for school entrance dropped

RESIDENTS in a quiet Hednesford cul-de-sac are celebrating after plans to create a new school entrance outside their homes were dropped.

The controversial plan to move the entrance of the 850-pupil Staffordshire University Academy, formerly Blake Valley Technology College, was axed after intervention from local councillors.

The academy is being revamped in a £9.7 million scheme to include a BMX track and a four-court sports hall, as well as new art and science facilities.

The scheme involved moving the entrance from Marston Road to Marina Crescent, which residents claimed would shatter their peace.

After facing pressure from parish councillors in Hednesford and the leader of Cannock Chase Council, the plans have been withdrawn.

Meant

The leader of Cannock Chase Council, George Adamson, had planned to hold a meeting with planning chiefs after being told that every single resident in Marina Crescent had objected to the proposed access.

It would have meant hundreds of students would walk through their road every day.

He said: "The residents are really over the moon that they have been listened to."

By Harry Gottschalk

tened to."

The academy replaced Blake Valley Technology College in the existing buildings in September 2011.

The change was designed to attract investment from central government to improve facilities.

County councillor Liz Staples, the cabinet member for education and skills, said: "We held an open, honest and genuine consultation, listened to feedback from local residents and Cannock Chase District Council, and have modified the planning application as a result."

"It's really heartening to see local people actively participating in the future of their area."

"This investment will benefit the whole community with improved sport facilities, job opportunities through the construction phase as well as providing students with the best possible environment."

Free heart checks offer

THE FAMILY of a Cheslyn Hay woman who died of an undiagnosed heart condition have arranged for two health check events to be held at Aston Villa Football Club. Fitness instructor Zoe Teale was 23 when she died in 2009 from Sudden Adult Death Syndrome. Since then her parents Peter and Julie and her sister Meghan have raised more than £50,000 for the Cardiac Risk in the Young charity. Along with it they have organised two free heart screenings for anyone aged 14 to 35 on April 14 and 15. Visit www.testmyheart.org to make an appointment.

Sam Pachner prepares for the Staffordshire Wildlife Trust craft fair

Get crafty in support of wildlife

WILDLIFE enthusiasts have the chance to find the perfect gift for Mother's Day this weekend.

Visitors will have the chance to browse around a bustling bazaar full of handmade crafts when a conservation charity's head-quarters is transformed into a colourful craft fair.

The fundraising event is being held on both Saturday and Sunday (February 25/26) from 10am to 4pm at Staffordshire Wildlife Trust's Wolsley Bridge visitor centre, near Rugeley.

There will be stalls selling locally-made wares including jewellery, ceramics and chocolates.

Stalls

Sam Pachner, the trust's fundraising assistant, said: "We are going to be covering the whole ground floor of the visitor centre with stalls so this is an ideal opportunity to treat yourself or find a unique gift for someone - perhaps for Mother's Day on March 18. "You'll also be supporting craftspeople and the work of Staffordshire Wildlife Trust at the same time."

The price of admission is £1, which will go towards supporting the work of the trust.

For information call 01889 880100.

No early decision on pub company

THE future of pub firm Calco Pubs Limited may not be decided for months, it has emerged.

The firm, which runs dozens of pubs and social clubs across the Midlands, including Bridge Cross Working Men's Club, Burntwood, is in the hands of administrators Zolfo Cooper after going into administration last month.

Zolfo Cooper spokesman James Overstall said: "The joint administrators are continuing to work with the advisors."

Ramblers ready for three walks

MID-STAFFS Ramblers, which boasts 300 members, is holding three events next month.

A nine-mile route taking in Church Leigh leaves from The Wildwood, Cannock Road, Stafford, on March 6. Ramblers should meet at 9.30am. On March 11, a nine-mile course goes to Marbury, near Whitchurch. Meet at Stafford Road car park, Newport, at 9.15am. A seven-mile walk along Limestone Way, the River Dove and Calwich is on March 17.

Rock Dogs get ready to bark out

MODERN indie rock covers band The Rock Dogs will be playing live and loud at Woody's music bar, Hednesford on Friday 24th February.

The boys play covers from the likes of kings of Leon, Foo Fighters, Oasis, Feeder, Arctic Monkeys and the Kinks among others and are looking forward to rocking this live venue. Entry is free and there is a late bar.

Hospital for man after cars collide

A MAN was taken to hospital with suspected neck and spinal injuries following a car crash in Cannock.

Two cars collided in Old Hednesford Road, at around 3.45pm on Wednesday (February 15). A 26-year-old man was taken to Stafford Hospital and a 76-year-old woman suffered shock.

Moderate walk

THE Chase & District Ramblers are off on a nine-mile moderate walk at Albrighton on Sunday (February 26). Meet at Hednesford rail station car park in Angley Street for a prompt 9am departure.

These microchip gizmos will not unlock the door until they have recognised your thumbprint and detected a pulse, which prevents burglars chopping off your thumb and using it to get in.

The snag is that the proud householder in this series is a car mechanic whose burned, blistered and cut thumbs are rarely the same two nights running, so the lock refuses to let him into his own house.

This is a cautionary tale for our time. The inventors are fully aware of modern criminality but appear to know little about something called manual labour.

Theft-hit stove firm stokes up business

A STORE owner from Penkridge is still planning to reopen his expanded business this weekend, despite losing much of his stock in a burglary last week.

Andy Dale runs AJ Woodstoves, which is based on the A34 between Cannock and Stafford, and was left devastated when thieves stole a large number of stoves in a raid on Friday (17).

He had planned to open his new showroom the following day, but has been forced to put it back a week while he took stock of what was left. "We're trying to bounce back and get up and running as soon as we can," Mr Dale, who runs the company with his wife Helen, said.

"Despite the burglary we've still been able to stock the showroom with a variety of stoves."

Mr Dale set up his business in 2008 and has since moved to larger premises on four occasions as the company has expanded. He said things had gone very well in the past four years, despite the country's economic downturn.

"We are really pleased with how the business has grown over the last 12 months," he added. "A lot of our customers appreciate the fact that we offer a flexible service."

"As well as selling stoves and parts we can also provide a full HETAS accredited installation service. As a family business, we pride ourselves on good customer service and many of our customers come to us through personal recommendation."

To mark the opening, five free bags of logs will be offered with every stove ordered, as well as discounts on every booked installation.

New body to link up care after feedback

NINE out of 10 people in Cannock feel it's important to be able to have their say on health and social care services, figures have revealed.

The majority of those responding to the public consultation felt it would be useful to have one independent body to help them with issues around NHS and Social Care services.

The figures come from a recent public consultation by Staffordshire County Council. More than 2,300 people responded to questions on the importance of feedback on the quality of services, as well as why they might be reluctant to speak up and have their say.

An overwhelming 97 per cent of people surveyed in Cannock and the surrounding areas felt it was important to have their say.

In response to the survey, an independent social enterprise, Engaging Communities Staffordshire (ECS) will be launched on April 1 to bring together all the data, intelligence, public views, information and feedback on the quality of health and care services.

Poor quality service can then be dealt with sooner, a council spokesman said.

Derailment fear on HS2

THE safety of the controversial £33 billion HS2 rail scheme is being questioned amid warnings that high speeds proposed could cause catastrophic track failures and derailments.

HS2 supporters claim it will be able to run up to 18 trains an hour – one every three minutes 20 seconds. However, world experts on the geo-engineering of railways, Prof Peter Woodward said high-speed running creates track problems that he claims "may threaten the stability and safety of the train". The line will pass close to Lichfield, Whittington, Hints and Streethay.

Chase for votes

Unanimous rejection of trailer park plans

CONTROVERSIAL plans to build a huge trailer park near Cannock have been thrown out. Members of South Staffordshire Council regulatory committee argued the development in Bognop Road, Essington, would mean the loss of green belt land.

Keyboards duo promise cracker of an evening

EAST meets west at Burntwood on this evening (Thursday) when keyboard virtuosos Chihō Sunamoto and Jon Smith are in concert at Burntwood.

They will be playing at the Memorial Hall, Rugeley Road, at 7.30pm as guests of Burntwood Music For All.

Sunamoto, described as the Vanessa Mae of the organ and keyboard world, brings a breath of fresh air to the keyboard scene. Originally from Japan, she began by learning the piano at the age of three.

At St Katerina University, where she studied opera singing, piano and classical organ, she became one of the youngest people to pass Yamaha's top exam, Grade 3 Music Diploma.

Smith has entertained thousands of people all over the world aboard cruise ships, at top cabaret venues and at summer shows on the East Coast and the Isle of Wight.

Their sheer artistry and charm always delights their audiences and a varied programme is always guaranteed with classics to pop and swing along the way, a spokesman said.

Tickets are £5 and available on the door. More details from CMP Promotions on 01530 274270.

Wolverhampton-based ATE Truck and Trailer Sales Ltd wanted to create space for 212 HGV trailers.

But Essington Councillor David Clift told the committee on Tuesday the scheme was inappropriate development on the green belt.

He said: "The site is in the green belt. We don't want to see it lost."

Councillor Bob Cope, who represents Featherstone and Sharesill, added: "I don't want this to go ahead because of the implications on the green belt."

Cheslyn Hay South Councillor David Heseltine argued Bognop Road would not be able to cope with increased traffic going to and from the trailer park.

Every member of the committee rejected the plan, despite hearing the site is used by off-road bikers.

Terrible

Hundreds gather there at weekends and residents have complained about the noise.

Councillor Clift said: "It is being used by scramble bikes. It's in a terrible state. It's the blight of Essington."

As well as the trailer park, an office and security fencing were also included in the plans for the site of the Windmill Quarry, which closed 10 years ago.

ATE Truck and Trailer Sales Ltd's commercial director Allan Evans said the scheme would create 25 jobs.

"This would create five new jobs and a further 20 jobs," he said. "The creation of jobs is particularly vital at the moment."

Raising the roof for appeal

Organisers Eileen Clancy and Carol Garnett prepare for the fundraising night

A CHURCH in Cannock is launching a £20,000 fundraising appeal in a bid to help repair a damaged area of its roof.

St Mary and St Thomas More Roman Catholic Church is to hold a series of events to help stem a leaking area of the roof.

It comes after heavy snow earlier this month caused a small hole in the left corner of the church, located off the Walsall Road, to leak water.

Fundraisers will hold the first – which will feature Midlands comedian Doug Parker – tonight (Thursday) at 8pm.

Carol Garnett, who lives in Penkridge and worships with her husband Peter at the church, said: "It will cost about £20,000 so we are looking at various fundraising events throughout the year to help us."

The Two Tenors & Doug Parker is at the community centre on Hunter Road. Tickets are £8 per person and available on 07816 832530 or on the door.

Exciting opening chapter

A NEW library for Cheslyn Hay has opened in an extension of the village hall.

Staffordshire County Council has worked closely with Cheslyn Hay Parish Council on the project to ensure that it meets the needs of villagers.

Councillor Pat Corfield, cabinet member for communities, culture and customers at the county council and a former Cheslyn Hay resident, said: "It's great to see Cheslyn Hay's new library up and running and being visited by village residents in its first few days.

"The new library has been brought into a community building which is used by a wide range of organisations which will hopefully be encouraged to make use of this new facility. It makes sense to have the library under the same roof as other services, ensuring it is more accessible to everyone.

"Running costs will also be lower in a more efficient building, meaning residents will be getting better value for money for the service."

Councillor Corfield added: "We are committed to ensuring a high quality library service across Staffordshire and the new facility at Cheslyn Hay is a fine example.

"I to thank residents for their patience while the library was closed."

Wrestling to find talent

TWO professional wrestlers are hoping to unearth talent in Cannock when they begin a course of training sessions next month.

Scotty Wildside and Viken (aka Luke Dutton) will hold child and adult classes at the Ultimate Training Centre, on Wolverhampton Road, from Saturday March 3 between 11am and 1pm.

Sessions, which cost £5, will cover a wide range of styles including American, British and Lucha Libre and students will have the opportunity to take part in live wrestling events both in Cannock and across the UK.

For more information call 07544 497822.

Prue to speak

TELEVISION cook and broadcaster Prue Leith has been confirmed as the speaker for the Katharine House Hospice's annual ladies lunch on May 14 at the County Showground in Stafford. Last year the event raised more than £10,000.

Animal magic as vets scoop customer prize

STAFF at a vets practice in Great Wyrley are celebrating after winning a nationwide competition to become the UK's Most Loved Vets.

The 387 Veterinary Centre, in Walsall Road, was awarded the accolade as part of the best of the 14-days-of-love competition to find local businesses the British public love the most.

"We're delighted to have won the vet category," said 387 owner Hamish Duncan.

"As a recommended business we've been championed by thebestofwalsall now for six months, and the 14-days-of-love competition has been a brilliant way of collecting testimonials.

A competition display including clients' quotes on thebestofwalsall's website was a big talking point at our 11th February open day which drew in over 200 people during a 2 hour 'open house'."

The 387 Veterinary Centre beat Walsall-based Shelfall Vets 4 Pets into second place by 44 reviews.

Expressed

The annual competition identifies businesses which have the biggest Love Score – the number of customers who have expressed their love for a particular business over the past year.

Walsall-based winners will be recognised at a formal presentation at the Mayor's Parlour on March 19.

Delight at council as rural academy project approved

COUNCILLORS have welcomed news that a £4 million academy teaching agricultural and environmental studies is being created at a college campus near Penkridge. The ambitious scheme has been approved by South Staffordshire Council's regulatory committee.

South Staffordshire College wants to build a Rural Enterprise Academy at the Rodbaston campus, creating an estimated 14 extra jobs, catering for 300 students and including a 90-place sixth form.

Penkridge North-East's Councillor Isabel Ford said she was delighted it was going ahead.

"I thought it was a good application. The scheme will not be taking up green belt, as the college will be using existing buildings.

"The new academy will enhance the college's current operations. We all went on a site visit and we thought it was a good idea."

Essington's Councillor David Clift, who was also at the meeting, said he thought the scheme looked fine.

"The college is trying to do a lot on that site which is good," he said.

Under the plans, a new sports hall and reception will be built and the total number of workers at the site will rise by 14 to 164. Existing buildings will be demolished to make way for a two-storey, 19,000sq ft teaching block while social and dining blocks, Sanders Hall and Ralph's, will be refurbished. The teaching building will house specialist laboratories.

Powerful

The new academy was designed in order to develop students' skills in rural fields, with emphasis on renewable technology, and will also teach the English Baccalaureate to Key Stage 4 level.

College principal Graham Morley said the project was a "direct response" to demand from both parents and the industry.

"We are absolutely delighted by this news which endorses the quality of learning available at our college," he said.

"It also underlines the opportunities in the rural sector available to the young people studying at Rodbaston.

"The Rural Enterprise Academy will provide a powerful combination of academic and practical skills to equip more youngsters for the workplace and help secure their future."

Rodbaston was part of the four-campus merger with Lichfield, Cannock, and Tamworth which accompanied South Staffordshire College's launch in January 2009 as a "super college".

It has taught rural and horticultural-based subjects for several decades.

Theresa can take judges' breath away

A SMOOTH talking Rugeley woman has been named as one of just five UK winners of a competition to find a Valentine's chat-up line.

Theresa Cooke, of Church Lane, won a meal at The Colliers restaurant after charming judges with her suggestion of 'I hope you know CPR, because you just took my breath away'.

Table Table, which owns The Colliers, ran the Valentine's competition at the beginning of February.

Theresa said: "I'm absolutely thrilled to learn that my chat up line has been chosen."

"I can't wait to use it in the future on my loved one and am looking forward to my meal at The Colliers Table Table."

Marketing manager at Table Table, Helen Lavery, said: "Valentine's Day is a really special day for many couples around the UK and this year it seems was no exception."

"Theresa certainly charmed us with her line."

On the snail trail

A RARE snail has been discovered on a Staffordshire nature reserve. Surveys confirm the Desmoulin's whorl snail has been found for the first time at Aqualate Mere, between Gnosall and Newport. Ecologists have been amazed at the high numbers.

Five stars are icing on cake for trader

STAFF at a cake shop in Cannock have risen to the challenge of setting high standards in hygiene.

Sparkling Sugar, which opened 18 months ago in North Street, has had its first spot check from council-run inspection firm Rate My Place and was awarded a five-star rating.

The inspection covers hygiene and cleanliness standards, as well as the quality of food preparation and storage areas.

Victoria Perfect, owner of Sparkling Sugar, said she was proud of the five-star award.

Electric

"It was the first time we'd been checked since opening and it's really good to get five stars," she said.

"We're very organised here and had made a conscious effort to keep standards high."

Mrs Perfect's business is expanding across Cannock after she recently opened wedding shop Celebration Village, opposite Electric Palace Picture House in Walsall Road.

Celebration Village is hosting a wedding fair from 11am to 4pm this Sunday (February 26), with Sparkling Sugar cakes set to be on display.

NEWS in brief

A get-together to offer support

A BURN'TWOOD care home is inviting people to a community get-together being held next month.

Bupa's Hammerwich Hall Residential and Nursing Home is hosting a tea party for Community Week, inviting those who may be struggling on their own to meet new people for support.

The aim is to raise awareness of Bupa's Community Week, which runs between March 12 and 18. The nationwide campaign uses the theme of tea to tackle the problems of isolation and loneliness. Call 0845 600 4622 for more information.

Slimming aide's 12-week mission

A SLIMMING organisation is on a mission to help people in the Burntwood area to lose weight.

Suzi Rigby, a Slimming World consultant, says a survey found that 67 per cent of people in the area think obesity is a national crisis and 75 per cent want to slim.

Ms Rigby has launched Let's Beat Obesity Together, a 12-week campaign at Hammerwich Slimming World group.

School search for first-aiders

SCHOOLS in Staffordshire are being urged to take part in a national first aid competition aimed at equipping the next generation with the skills to save lives.

The St John Ambulance National Schools' First Aid Competition encourages teams to battle it out by carrying out first aid in a variety of scenarios on live 'casualties'. Teams can enter the regional heats at the Innovation Centre, Walsall, on June 12.

Small firms loan scheme praised

A LOANS scheme set up by Staffordshire County Council which has benefited 55 small firms has been endorsed by the Government.

The Staffordshire Business Support Fund has loaned firms £1.4 million since its launch in 2009.

Fair top of table

A TABLE top fair will be held at St Luke's Church, Cannock, on Saturday. There will be more than 20 tables with free entry from 10am until 1pm. Refreshments will be available. More details on 01543 574624.

thechronicle Gallery home to exhibition of exclusive Rolf artwork

CAN you tell what they are yet? Limited edition Rolf Harris paintings have gone on display at a gallery in Cannock.

A selection of paintings by the Australian artist have gone on show at the Artworx in Avon Road. The artwork ranges from the vast plains of the Australian outback to the serene waterways of Venice and the majestic wildlife of Kenya.

The multi-talented former Animal Hospital presenter shot to fame drawing cartoon sketches on television in the 1950s. He reinvented himself as a singer and had hits like Tie Me Kangaroo Down Sport, Two Little Boys, Jake The Peg and Sun Arise.

Later in his career, he headlined at the Glastonbury Festival, but has since returned to his first love of art.

Fog

In 2005, he was commissioned to paint a portrait of the Queen for her 80th birthday. Now he produces collections of limited edition prints for sale at private galleries.

Artworx, based within the Cedars Business Centre, has acquired 16 of his most recent works, which helped to win the 81-year-old the title of Published Artist of the Year 2011.

The images range from the tree-lined pavements of Amsterdam to Battersea Power Station captured in the fog.

Gallery manager Ashley Corrigan said the prints, which ranged in price from £820 to £1,325 were limited to between 95 and 195 copies, depending on the painting.

She said: "People buy because it's 'a Rolf' and they love him while others see it as an investment that will increase in value."

Dairy farms in crisis as process firm goes bust

Chase litter-pick appeal

Ruth Hytch and Councillor Tony Williams plan to litter pick site

VOLUNTEERS are being urged to roll up their sleeves to help clear up litter and broken glass on part of Cannock Chase.

Councillor Tony Williams, town and district council ward member for Hagley, is calling for action at an area close to Hillary Crest, in Rugeley.

He is also a volunteer for the regional Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty office at Shugborough and is concerned at the state of an area of land behind Chase View Primary School, in Hillary Crest.

Together with nature experts, he has helped to arrange two days of clearing litter and rubbish on Wednesday, March 21, and Friday, April 2, between 10am and 2pm.

UP TO 40 dairy farms in Staffordshire have been plunged into crisis after a major milk processing firm went bust, owing each of them thousands of pounds.

Devon-based Farmright had contracts with 35-40 farms in the Midlands, mostly in Staffordshire.

Administrators Grant Thornton have been called in to salvage the business but bosses are resigned to losing the milk buying operation.

The firm's production line, which also produces sachets of milk served on trains and planes, could be saved.

Farmers at 90 sites nationwide were this week desperately trying to secure new contracts.

Director

Farmright was one of a number of firms which buy milk from farms to sell on to large-scale producers such as Dairycrest and Meadow Foods.

Grant Thornton spokesman Neil Fraser said 90 farms were owed a total of £5 million.

Helen Fern, who runs family business GM & HJ Fern, in Penkridge, is owed thousands of pounds for six weeks' worth of stock.

She has managed to secure a deal with a new company for future milk sales.

"I don't want to reveal how much I'm owed but it's thousands, and it costs thousands to run the farm," she said.

John Mercer, regional director of the National Farmers' Union, said: "It's a real blow for the dairy industry in the region."

Reg was the 'Jolly Coroner'

IT is with real regret that I write of the death of former Staffordshire county coroner Reginald Browning. As a staff member on the now defunct Rugeley Times newspaper, I met him frequently when reporting at court and while never being anything but professional he was also unfailingly helpful, cheerful and funny.

He once told me he'd been interviewed for a national paper and dubbed 'The Jolly Coroner' - that was how I referred to him thereafter in chats, and he loved it.

As a learned member of a local music group, Reg wrote a regular column under the pen name 'Brave Galuppi'. When referred to in print as 'Bravay' (phonetic spelling), Reg spluttered: "That's not right, I'm just Brave!" And he was, especially in the latter part of his life as he fought serious illness. I am sure anyone else who knew Reg will join me in missing him. He was one of life's gentlemen.

Residents' tolerance not acknowledged

I WOULD like to respond to the article on the planned change for foot traffic access to Staffordshire University Academy.

My family is one of 10 that lives in Marston Road. Six of the families have lived here for more than 15 years and some of our children have attended or are pupils so we accept we bought houses on the main road to a school entrance.

However, in that time it has changed from being simply a Secondary school. It leases its facilities for swimming lessons and junior football teams and football training during the evenings and weekends, not to mention jazz band practice, Archery club and a selection of other evening classes. Together with activities like school plays and music festivals Marston Road gets very busy.

This is a 'community' school but the headmaster has not once addressed or contacted Marston Road residents to acknowledge our tolerance.

Since September, children have been directed to enter via View Street, giving some relief from parked cars. The majority of the children go about their business with little disruption to the locals so our Marina Crescent neighbours have little to be concerned about. It is interesting that Cannock Chase Council leader George Adamson wants to organise a meeting with county planners given the 'protest' from Marina Crescent.

I would have thought Cannock Chase Council would be fully aware of the long-term future of Staffordshire University Academy given the recent construction of the 'road to nowhere' that cuts through Pye Green Valley. I think the council leader should put his efforts into securing an entrance to the school from the new road.

Meanwhile, we in Marston Road still have two years of construction traffic and building work to tolerate before the 'revamp' is complete.

RESIDENT OF MARSTON ROAD

King is in his castle printing his money

HE'S at it again, Sir Mervyn! The King is in his castle, printing all his money.

He oversaw the banking collapse and has since done everything for the bankers and nothing for the wealth-creating workers. He first used the taxpayer to bail out the banking system, plunging us hundreds of billions more in his debt. That debt has now passed a trillion and a quarter of it we owe to his bank.

He has already printed an extra 250 billion in banknotes, that he generously loans to his bankers at half a per cent. He could have used that to pay off our debt to him and we wouldn't need all these cutbacks.

He serves his banking class, not us. He prints another 75 billion to further grease the palms. All banks do is suck wealth, vampire like, out of it. It is time to take a socialist stake and plunge it firmly in the banking heart.

Taking precautions

A GOVERNMENT warning said that anyone travelling in icy conditions should take a shovel, blankets or sleeping bag, extra clothing including a scarf, hat and gloves, a 24-hour supply of food and drink, de-icer, rock salt, a torch and spare batteries, a safety triangle, a tow rope, a can of petrol, a First Aid kit and jump leads. I got some very strange looks this morning as I got on the bus.

Put it all in perspective

WHEN we were young, we went to fancy dress dances. At nearly all of them, someone dressed as a Nazi officer. It was a send up, ridicule, not admiration.

Our own fathers fought in two World wars. Fortunately they both came back, albeit in a shocking state and they never fully recovered.

What upsets us, is that so many lives were lost or ruined fighting for our freedom. Now we feel the freedom of our country is being given away. Let's put all of this into perspective.

Health proposals opposed by voters

AN opinion poll shows 62 per cent of voters do not trust the Government on the NHS. The Government's proposals are also opposed by a huge majority of health professionals.

NHS deputy chief executive David Flory revealed that last year 30 acute trusts failed to meet the required standards on the 18-week waiting times. He said the number waiting longer had gone up by 42 per cent since May 2010.

The money being spent on the NHS 'reforms' would protect the jobs of 6,000 nurses. Surely this would be a better use of taxpayers' money? The health secretary added insult to injury by refusing to meet council representatives to discuss the closure of A&E at Stafford. He was keen to intervene when it suited him politically in 2010 to set up the inquiry into the hospital.

Miss Green should get out more often

RE: Top Totty ale. So Shadow Equalities Minister (Wow!) Kate Green was left "disturbed" by a CARTOON image of a Bunny Girl. Perhaps Miss (surprise, surprise) Green should get out more often. Perhaps she might prefer a Soggy Bottom or a Bishops Finger.

If the same rules apply in the Strangers bar as they do in all other licensed premises and the landlord can refuse to serve anyone without giving them a reason, then perhaps Miss Green should have been asked to leave the premises.

A new power as Amazon joins the industry forest

The view of the Amazon distribution centre with the power station behind it from Hillary Crest, Rugeley

IT'S the changing face of the Staffordshire landscape – and shows how industry old and new sit side by side.

Below the blue skyline are the lingering towers of Rugeley Power Station, looming large over Amazon's giant distribution centre.

With its futuristic look the retailer's base overlooks the houses which help to sandwich the Amazon hub along with the power station.

The blue and white colour of the base, along with its location next to the power station, make it easy to see from several hundred feet away.

This picture was taken from Hillary Crest, Rugeley.

The online retailer opened its huge base at Towers Business Park – measuring 700,000 sq ft – back in September and brought 900 jobs along with it.

It was announced as one of the 17 centres to be built worldwide as part of Amazon's ambitious growth plans.

Rugeley Power Station is a coal-fired site. The former part – opened in 1961 – has since been closed.

Rugeley B power station was commissioned in 1970 and is in operation today. It provides enough electricity for half-a-million homes.

The three Lyons . . . Tommy, who went on to play for Aston Villas, Bill, who also joined Villa, and Jim, who went to Derby

Lyons made their names in colours of the Pitmen

THE latest in the series on Hednesford Town players who went on to play league football looks at two prolific footballing families.

Between 1902 and 1932 there had been at least one member of Hednesford's Lyons family representing them in the Football League.

Tommy Lyons possessed exceptional positional sense and a powerful kick and after leaving the Pitmen made the right-back position his own at Aston Villa for seven years. He only missed three games during Villa's 1909-10 league championship win and a year later picked up an FA Cup winners' medal, before moving to Port Vale after the First World War and then rejoining Hednesford in 1923.

Bill Lyons made his Hednesford debut in 1910 and joined Aston Villa immediately before the outbreak of the First World War. In 1919 Bill was back in the Hednesford team which reached the FA Cup first round proper. He stayed there until 1926, making 268 appearances, thought to be a club record.

Jim Lyons made his mark immediately after the First World War, figuring prominently alongside elder brother Bill before being transferred to First Division Derby for a four-figure sum. He topped the Rams' scoring list in both 1922 and 1923, but after several training infringements, Derby and the FA gave Jim a nine-month sentence and he moved to Wrexham before ending his career at Cannock Town.

Talented defender Alec Talbot, born in Cannock in 1902, was the elder of four footballing brothers;

Ray, Horace and Les. Alec joined Aston Villa for £100 in April 1923 and for six years from 1928 was a regular at the heart of the Villa's 'Wind, Sleet and Rain' defensive line-up. He was an ever-present from 1930 to 1932 and made 263 appearances in all.

Les Talbot was the youngest of the distinguished family and made the jump from their hometown to league football with ease.

After only a month at the Keys First Division Blackburn Rovers whisked him away in October 1930.

He scored 21 goals in 96 games there and surprisingly moved to Cardiff, before ending his career in Holland, where he died in 1983.

Horace Talbot joined his brother Alec at Villa Park in 1932, but soon moved back to the Chase to play for Cannock in 1934.

Anyone with information or photographs about former players should call 01543 491713.

Roma's 100th birthday party down to a fine art

Roma Brookes with her great granddaughters, left, Caitlyn Lilley, aged 10, and sister Abigail, 12

One of 100-year-old Roma Brookes' paintings she created after she took up art six years ago

GREAT-GRANDMOTHER Roma Brookes only started painting six years ago – now she is celebrating turning 100.

She showed off her latest works – including a stunning landscape featuring ice-covered mountains surrounding a sky blue lake – to relatives who joined her to mark her century on Friday.

Roma, of Hednesford, who has two daughters, two grandchildren and four great-grandchildren, said she joined her art group to make new friends. But her fledgling brushwork is clearly flourishing.

Mrs Brookes, whose other hobbies include embroidery and bead work, said: "I tend to do a lot of creative things and am also a member of Heath Hayes Art Group."

"I always find something to do in order to keep your mind active. I've been involved in the art group for five or six years. It's really good."

Mrs Brookes celebrated her birthday with 82-year-old husband Graham and other family members at the couple's home. Mr and Mrs Brookes married in September 1962.

The centenarian said being mentally active was vital to her reaching the milestone. She added: "If there was one piece of advice I would give to people, it is to have an active mind."

Spy eyes on fly-tipping reduce bill for taxpayers

A DRAMATIC drop in reports of fly-tipping has been recorded in South Staffordshire as councils wage war on rogue rubbish dumpers. Hundreds fewer illegal drops are being reported by residents each year, saving council taxpayers tens of thousands of pounds in clean-up costs.

South Staffordshire Council has seen a fall of more than a third of the number of fly-tipping incidents officers attended in 2010-11 compared with 2007-08. Call-outs at neighbouring Cannock Chase Council bucked the trend, rising by 11 per cent in the same period.

Covert CCTV cameras have been installed at hotspots and vans are being stopped and searched by enforcement officers as part of a county-wide crackdown.

In South Staffordshire, £35,000 was spent dealing with 439 piles of rubbish, compared with the £47,000 paid out clearing up 706 sites in 2007-08.

Spanish clue as dragnet widens for danger man

DETECTIVES hunting fugitive prisoner John Anslow - suspected of killing a Staffordshire businessman - have revealed they are investigating potential sightings of him in Spain.

And they said they had not ruled out the possibility of sending officers abroad to track down the alleged murderer, after receiving more than 100 calls from members of the public.

Anslow was sprung from a prison van after it was ambushed by armed men on its way to Stafford Crown Court four weeks ago.

Det Supt Wayne Jones, of Staffordshire Police, said they believed Anslow, from Tipton, could be in Spain. "We've had calls about potential sightings of Anslow across the UK and abroad," he said.

"We're keeping an open mind about whether he is in this country or abroad and are continuing to liaise with the relevant authorities.

"We haven't sent any detectives abroad, but will review the situation, should any new information come to light."

Abandoning

Police said they were keen to speak to anyone who had seen the grey C63 AMG Estate Mercedes used in the January 23 getaway.

A £10,000 reward has been offered for information that leads to Anslow's arrest and return to prison.

Anslow is accused of killing father-of-two Richard Deakin, of Chasetown. Mr Deakin, who ran a Walsall skip hire firm, was shot in bed at home in July 2010.

Four other men have also been charged with murder.

The sledgehammer-wielding gang who helped spring Anslow from his prison van used a silver VW Scirocco - registration BT59 NYC - before abandoning it and switching to the Mercedes.

Anyone with information should call police on 01785 232503 or Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111.

On the run - John Anslow

Employees accused of stealing

MORE than 180 people have been arrested and charged for stealing from their employer in the past two years across the Black Country and Staffordshire.

School secretaries, post office workers and travel agents are among those who have been hauled before the court. The amounts stolen have ranged from a few hundred pounds to more than £250,000.

Figures released under the Freedom of Information Act show that Walsall had the highest number of people arrested and charged with theft from employers - 15 in 2010 and 15 in 2011.

In 2010, four people were arrested and charged in Cannock, three in Stafford and one in Lichfield.

Across the Staffordshire Police area, 54 people were arrested and charged in 2010 and 43 in 2011.

Nine people passed through Watling House, which covers Cannock.

Safety inspections at building refurb sites

CONSTRUCTION sites in Staffordshire are being put under the spotlight by the Health and Safety Executive as part of an intensive inspection initiative aimed at reducing death, injury and ill health.

Over the next month inspectors will be visiting sites across Staffordshire where refurbishment or repair works are being carried out. Their primary focus will be high-risk activity such as working at height, and also ensuring sites are clean and tidy with clear access. Employers are being warned of possible enforcement action or prosecution.

In 2010-11, three Staffordshire workers were killed and 40 were seriously injured while working in construction.

Pub makes way for pups as vet takes over old bar

Christopher Bailey, of Lloyds TSB Commercial, and vet James Cadwallader with Fly the border collie

A VETERINARY practice has opened in Rugeley. Number 1 Vets, in Brereton Road, is on the site of the former Britannia and uses the old pub bar as its reception desk.

Owner James Cadwallader said: "I know Rugeley and the wider Staffordshire region extremely well, having lived and worked here for more than 13 years.

"So when the opportunity arose to purchase the premises I knew this was the perfect opportunity to establish my own veterinary practice."

With the help of a £150,000 loan from Lloyds TSB Commercial, the practice has a range of state-of-the-art equipment as well as specialist radiography units and a fully adjustable floating table for examinations.

Valuable

Mr Cadwallader aims to provide emergency veterinary care, 24 hours a day and is even living above the practice to make this possible.

Christopher Bailey, relationship manager for Lloyds TSB Commercial, said: "Number 1 Vets is a very valuable addition to the local Rugeley community.

"James and his team are all very experienced and have been working hard to make pets and their owners welcome."

Market is a big pull for traders

PENKRIDGE Market's Fine Food and Craft Market has proved so successful there is now a waiting list of traders eager to attend the event, organisers said.

Market manager Matt Williams said it was proving popular with people across the region.

He said: "The food and craft market has proved a great success for us and it gives people the opportunity to support local producers and businesses too."

The market is held on the third Saturday of each month, with the next one scheduled for March 17.

Stallholders sell a range of local produce from cheeses, breads and olives, to home-made cakes, pies and preserves.

The market, which is situated in the town centre runs between 9am and 4pm, and admission to the event, and parking, is free of charge.

Limo just the ticket for prize-winning fan Ryan

Arriving in style at Walsall FC are competition winner and season ticket holder Ryan Davies, front, with, back, driver Keir Bellamy, dad Adam Davies, pals Ryan Salt, Niall Hadlington and Josh Lilley, and sister Gemma Davies

FOOTBALL fan Ryan Davies, from Hednesford, found the pen is might-ier than the ball as his writing scored with Walsall FC and netted him a VIP trip to last Saturday's match.The club challenged young members of the Team Saddlers children's club to write a Walsall FC-themed Christmas song to be in the running for a trip in a stretch limousine to and from a game.Twelve-year-old Ryan made up the tune Saddlers are Coming to Town (sung to the tune of Santa Claus is Coming to Town) which saw off the opposition to win the limo trip. Thesong was printed out in full in the Boxing Day match programme and the big treat came last weekend.Ryan arrived at Saturday's home game in style as he pulled up at Banks's Stadium in a limousine provided by Cannock firm Hewkin Executive cars.BrilliantHe was able to take parents Adam and Diane, sister Gemma, aged nine, and school friends Josh Lilley, Ryan Salt and Niall Hadlington, who also go to Kingsmead Technology College, Hednesford. They were treated to along drive in the Chrysler 300C chauffeur-driven limo before being dropped off at the game. They were then picked up and taken home - after watching
Saddlers beat Wycombe Wanderers 2-0.Ryan, a season ticket holder, said:
"Everyone was looking at us as we pulled up at Bescot. I think they thought we must be famous. I had a brilliant time, but the day was made even better because we won."Dad Adam said: "He was over the

Organist and choir entertain

CANNOCK WI

THE president welcomed members and guest Margaret Walker on a cold and frosty morning.

Eileen Smith, Diana Malpass and Joan Brazier were wished a happy birthday for February.

Those that attended the SFWI concert had a wonderful evening. Organist Jean Martyn excelled, the Harmonies, the WI lady choir were lovely, and the Myths a 60 strong mixed choir aged from eight-to-18 were beautiful.

January's Cookery Club made smoked haddock fish pie followed by Maltese cheesecake. February's Cookery Group is on Monday 27, while Helen's fundraising coffee mornings are on March 12 and 15.

Speakers at the SFWI spring meeting on March 27 are Marion Armstrong and Julie Peasgood.

On March 29, Sharnhall WI host the Group Meeting with Brewood Singers entertaining and the competition an old vinyl record in a sleeve.

February was an open meeting with a bring and buy sale, a beetle drive and bingo. The games group has restarted and are enjoying their skills twice a month.

Bromwyn will start the Walking Club once the weather improves.

The next meeting is on March 8 March in St Luke's Church hall. The speaker is from the shoe industry and the competition a shoe horn.

Cheque towards Teardrop project

CANNOCK SOROPTIMISTS

CANNOCK Soroptimists were thrilled to accept a cheque for £50 from Cannock Lions as a contribution to help fund their project on trafficking, Purple Teardrop.

President Eileen Cryer and the club's Programme Action group, which is leading the project, was particularly pleased as another taxi firm had just agreed to become involved and the club needed to provide stickers and leaflets with the information about trafficking to a further 30 taxis in the area.

Cannock Lions president Doug Smith said: "We are proud to be part of such a practical initiative."

Cannock Lions has supported the Soroptimists with the Purple Teardrop campaign by taking posters to display, by putting the information on their Facebook page and by inviting Cannock Soroptimists to go along to one of their events to get signatures on the petition. This will be presented to 10 Downing Street asking for a ban on 'sex for sale' advertising.

Presidents Doug and Eileen said it was good to have the clubs working together.

Soroptimists are women inspiring action, transforming lives and working to make a difference.

Club thanks for shoppers

CANNOCK Rotary Club would like to say a big thank you to those who donated at Asda supermarket in the week before at Christmas.

Rotary Club members, assisted by Father Christmas, collected money in the entrance hall. Shoppers were generous as always and raised £1,560 for Rotary charities. This has gone towards a specialised motorised wheelchair for a local lady, a specialist bed for a disabled child in the Cannock area, dictionaries for local schoolchildren, St

John Ambulance International Aid, Simple Sight appeal and Therapies Unite (Mexico).

A small amount of the money is still left over which will be spent throughout the year.

The club welcomes new members. Contact www.cannockrotary.co.uk

Seven new homes ideal for area, says developer

A HOUSING development will be built between Cannock and Burntwood if plans revealed this week are given the go-ahead.

A planning application has been sent to Lichfield District Council for land in Cannock Road, Chase Terrace, to have seven new homes.

The plans are by property firm Mercia Construction, based in Hill Ridware, near Rugeley. The development covering a quarter of an acre next to 193 Cannock Road would have 12 car park spaces and comprise two one-bedroom ground floor apartments and two two-bedroom apartments on the first floor in one block.

A second block would contain three two-bedroom houses, with a communal garden.

The applicants have told the council the development would prove popular with househunters as it was near many amenities.

In the design and access statement, the firm said: "The application site is located wholly within the built up area of Chase Terrace. The site has good access to a comprehensive range of services and facilities within easy walking distance.

"Surrounding employment areas are also easily accessible by walking or public transport.

"The principle of new dwellings on this site will be entirely consistent with the surrounding pattern of residential development."

Mercia said it has had talks with housing associations, which had identified a need for this type of development in Chase Terrace.

Punch breaks man's jaw

A MAN was assaulted outside a chip shop in Heath Hayes. The 39-year-old local man suffered a broken jaw when he was punched in the face outside Heath Hayes Fish Bar, Hednesford Road, Hat around 9pm on Tuesday, February 7. The offender is described as white and in his mid 30s.

Butcher hooks top prize

Butcher Darren Symes with customer Yvonne Pember, aged 72

DARREN Symes is the UK's best-loved butcher – just ask his customers, whose votes have helped him win the top title.

It is the second time he has been given the accolade. Mr Symes has shops in Burntwood Road, Norton Canes, and High Street, Brownhills, and came top in the competition run by a national network promoting local businesses.

He entered through the Brownhills branch of the organisation, the Best of Walsall. The 42-year-old, of Brownhills, said: "The competition is based on customer recommendations and I'm elated about being the most-loved butcher for the second year in a row.

"It was lovely to win just once but twice on the run is great."

He will be rewarded with a certificate which he will receive from Walsall's Mayor, Councillor Garry Perry, when he visits the Mayor's Parlour on March 19.

Bar owner puts on his running shoes to help

Heather Campbell, of Newlife, with Alastair Payne

The owner of a Cannock bar is running in the 2012 London Marathon to help support disabled and terminally ill children and their families in Staffordshire.

Bank Bar owner Alastair Payne is working with local children's disability charity Newlife Foundation to raise funding and will also be hosting a series of high-profile events at his Wolverhampton Road venue.

A quiz night is being organised for March 14, with bands The Wish, Fulfilment and One Thousand Suns performing 48 hours later on March 16. The following month Bank is hosting an all-you-can-eat pasta party, on April 18.

Alastair will be tackling the London Marathon in April for the sixth time. As part of his training he will be running about 80 miles a week. He said: "The bonus is knowing that disabled Staffordshire children will benefit directly."

Moves to get hotel chains into county are praised

A DRIVE to bring major hotel chains to Staffordshire has been hailed as "great for the region" as chiefs look to boost tourism in the county.

By Mark Mudie

Big names like Hilton and Ramada are thought to be among big-hitting, upmarket firms which county council bosses are lining up to fill a gap in the market.

More than 1,200 extra beds will be added to around 20,000 currently available to overnight visitors under a three-year plan unveiled this week.

The tourism workforce will rise by around 3,000. Staffordshire's £1.7 billion a year tourism industry is expected to be worth more than £1.9bn in 2014.

The proposals include two "quality" hotels, adding to the Ramada in Cannock, with Stafford and Lichfield mooted as possible locations.

Holiday

George Adamson, leader of Cannock Chase Council, said his district stood to benefit from some of the smaller developments the county council is also expected to pursue.

"These plans are great for the region," he said.

"They will bring construction work and jobs to the area, and people are going to spend money in Cannock Chase. Staffordshire might not be the first place people think of when they are planning a holiday but it has a huge amount to offer."

County council leader Philip Atkins said he hoped to capitalise on the 'staycation' trend, with increasing numbers choosing to take a break closer to home.

And Councillor Adamson added: "It's certainly true - I keep getting offers from holiday companies at discounted rates to go abroad because people are not buying foreign holidays."

The conference venues are expected to be on a similar scale to a 230-bedroom hotel being built at Rangemore, between Burton-upon-Trent and Barton-under-Needwood, as part of a £100m football centre project.

The centre is due to open in September 2012, becoming the new base of the England national team.

Council officers expect the number of people working in the county's tourism industry to rise from 33,636 last year to 36,833 by 2014.

Boot camp boss gives pledge over getting fit

AN ARMY-STYLE boot camp in Cannock complete with indoor assault course has opened its doors to the public.

BC One, which is situated at the former Bristols and Round Building, Walford Works, Longford Road, opened on Monday.

It is being run by personal trainer Ian Stanley and his sister-in-law Sarah Stanley and is set to create 10 jobs. The derelict factory has been transformed and kitted out with a reception and changing rooms.

The £40,000 facilities include an assault course based around the perimeter of the 8,000sq ft warehouse which includes rope climbs, tyres, monkey bars and cargo nets.

Graffiti artist Dave Rushton, of Hednesford tattoo studio Inksane, has created art work to give BC One a trendy urban feel.

As well as being a fitness facility for members of the public Boot Camp BC One could also become a training centre for police officers and firefighters.

Cannock Chase Council is also in talks with bosses of the company to provide a base for a mini Olympics style community games this summer.

Dozens of people turned up for the Open Weekend held last weekend (Saturday Feb 18 and Sunday February 19) and took part in introductory taster fitness sessions.

People of all ages and different levels of fitness took part in the fitness sessions run by Mr Stanley and fitness instructor Joe Cresswell.

Ian, aged 40, from Great Wyrley, who has been a personal trainer for more than 10 years, said: "It has been a dream of mine and Sarah's to bring this boot camp concept to Cannock for the last two years and it has finally come reality."

"We have come in and given the derelict building a total makeover. It is just great to see the place buzzing again with people having a fantastic time. People who come here are going to change their lives for the better."

"We are basically going back to basics when it comes to fitness training. BC One doesn't boast any fancy equipment but what I will guarantee is fitness results for any standard, from beginner to professional athlete and from teenager to pensioners.

"We will cater for all ages and abilities. We are unique to the West Midlands as the assault course and facilities are indoors."

Sarah, from Cannock, who is manager, added: "The response has just been phenomenal so far and the whole place is buzzing."

The rates for monthly membership are £35 for peak and just £20 for off-peak. Classes run from 6.15am until 9.15pm.

Council manages to save another £2m

STAFFORDSHIRE County Council has made a further £2 million savings on its budget, according to figures in its latest performance report reflecting on the third quarter. It showed they were made by "innovative management".

Council chiefs said investment resulting from Jaguar Land Rover and Amazon choosing to invest in Staffordshire as well as leading an integration of council and NHS services also helped. Another savings move had been creating a multi-agency safeguarding hub – known as MASH – to ensure information is shared across organisations and that vulnerable people were protected effectively.

Ian Parry, cabinet member for finance, said: "This report shows real evidence that we are delivering on what residents tell us are their most important needs."

The moment Chris Walker says yes to Sharon Harris

It's Sharon asking all the questions to stunned fan

A WALSALL football fan received a major shock when his girlfriend proposed on the Saddlers pitch in front of more than 3,000 people.

Sharon Harris popped the question to a stunned Chris Walker, from Great Wyrley, at Walsall's Banks's Stadium on Saturday – and the lifelong supporter said 'yes'.

Club officials staged a spoof half-time competition to get Chris onto the pitch before Sharon, his girlfriend of seven years, emerged to make her leap-year proposal.

Sharon, a hairdresser from Wednesbury, said: "I have been planning it for a couple of months and I had to plan it with one of his friends to make it happen."

Feeling

"We had to pretend his friend had some free tickets to make sure he was in the right stand."

"I had the idea to do it because it was a leap year and I had a good feeling that he would say yes."

"I can't stand football but I know that Chris loves it so I thought that Walsall would be a good place to propose."

Chris, an occupational health worker, had no idea Sharon was at the match until she appeared on the pitch at half-time.

The 27-year-old said: "The man with the microphone said 'do you recognise

Chris gives his answer via Gavin Drake's microphone this lady' but I didn't see Sharon to start with. When I did I couldn't believe it."

"The fans heard how shocked I was and I had to apologise for my language."

Acting as master of ceremonies was pitch announcers Gavin Drake. And it was double celebrations as Saddlers claimed a much-needed victory, beating Wycombe Wanderers 2-0.

Independent life service will take on more staff

A NEW service that helps people in Staffordshire live independently after illness or injury is taking on more staff to cope with an expected rise in demand.

The programme offers up to 12 weeks free care following an assessment and is designed to give people control over the support they need to maintain their independence.

Staffordshire County Council is looking to fill vacancies to make sure more staff are available when they are needed.

The expansion will also help to ensure the service is fully running when social care and health services join together in April. County councillor Matthew Ellis, cabinet member for adult wellbeing, described it as a major step forward.

Connie's internet tribute to Whitney

SINGING schoolgirl Connie Talbot has become an internet hit again - after her tribute to the late Whitney Houston attracted more than 37,000 views across the globe.

The former Britain's Got Talent star from Streetly posted a version of Run to You on YouTube after requests from fans following the 48-year-old soul singer's tragic death.

It has since become the most "liked" video in the UK and been nominated the best tribute to Whitney by American news programme Right This Minute. The 11 year-old became associated with the international star by releasing her own version of her hit ballad I Will Always Love You.

Connie's mother Sharon, aged 42, said they had been amazed by the response to the video which has attracted comments from around the world. She said: "Connie has always liked Whitney's voice and said she had got one of the best voices there has ever been."

"She was really emotional when she found out about Whitney. One time they were supposed to meet and do a duet but that never came off. This was her tribute song to Whitney."

Hospital and charity raided by metal thief for roof lead

A METAL thief from Brownhills targeted a hospital and a charity, stealing more than £4,000 in lead, a court heard.

Andrew Haddock stole lead at Stafford Hospital and from a building owned by Age UK in the county town.

Cannock Magistrates Court heard that the 21-year-old had earlier admitted taking lead worth £2,000 from the roof of the Mid Staffordshire Postgraduate Medical Centre, based at Stafford Hospital.

Mr Giles Rowden, prosecuting, said the removal of the lead had caused £5,760 of damage to the roof.

On the same night, between September 15 and 16 last year, the court heard that £2,146 worth of lead was taken from Bradbury House, a building owned by charity Age UK, in Weston Road, Stafford.

Haddock, of Ogle Road, Brownhills, was caught after being spotted on Stafford Hospital's CCTV system.

Defending, Mr David Grice said that Haddock, who previously lived in Canford Place, Cannock, had no previous convictions, had pleaded guilty at an early stage and "needs help to understand some points of the criminal justice system".

He said: "He is a young man who needs an appropriate adult and who is not able to understand all of the procedures."

Haddock was due to be sentenced earlier but did not turn up to court in time, so also faced a third charge of failing to surrender to court bail.

Haddock was ordered to carry out 120 hours of unpaid work, along with a 12 month community order, and ordered to pay £500 in compensation.

Chief magistrate Jennifer Webb said all three charges had been taken into consideration.

Haddock, who is currently on benefits, was ordered to pay back his compensation at £10 per fortnight.

Delight as Royal British Legion to form new branch

A NEW Royal British Legion branch, thought to be the UK's first in more than a decade, has been formed in Pelsall, Walsall. Just formal approval is now needed.

At least 15 people needed to attend a formation meeting in a bid to establish the branch.

But nearly twice this number showed up as 25 people came through the doors of Pelsall Community Centre, in Station Road, to pledge their support.

Committee members were also elected during the meeting and the branch is now looking for a suitable place to hold future meetings.

The Royal British Legion of Pelsall is the first new branch in the South Staffordshire area for at least 15 years and the first nationally for around 10.

Rotary says big thanks to generous residents

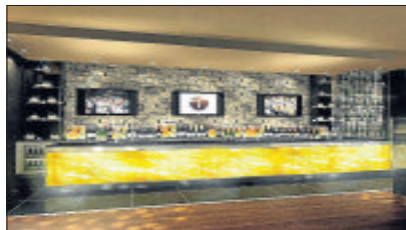

MEMBERS of the Rotary Club of Cannock have been thanking people in the town for their festive donations.

In the week before Christmas, members of the club, assisted by Father Christmas, collected money in the entrance hall to the Asda Supermarket in Avon Road.

Club president Mel Morgan said they had raised £1,560 which would be donated to several charitable causes.

He said: "We wish to thank the people of Cannock for their support at Christmas. We will use the money they have given wisely to help people both here and abroad who are in need of assistance."

Contractors get a taste of high life with nightclub job

Stylish – one of the new bars at Dick's Tea Bar

A CONTRACTOR from Rugeley has completed a £200,000 transformation of a legendary nightclub in the jet-set French ski resort of Val D'Isere.

By Marion Brennan

Kribensis Leisure Contracts, which is based at the Towers Business Park, has carried out the extravagant refit at the exclusive Dick's Tea Bar, renowned as a celebrity winter hangout for the last 33 years.

Among the bar's glitzy clientele are hotshot chef Heston Blumenthal, Girls Aloud star Sarah Harding and former Formula 1 team owner and TV pundit Eddie Jordan, who performed with his band.

Quickly

The building work involved a total overhaul of the bar and nightclub area, the creation of two new bars and luxury VIP seating booths.

The design contract went to KLC's sister company, GMP Design, also based in Rugeley.

The club, which was opened in 1979 by Dick Yates-Smith, quickly became the place to be seen despite its makeshift beginnings, with a ceiling made out of chipboard and lights mounted in old yoghurt pots.

The venue is famous for its apres-ski bar, serving mulled wine and hot chocolate.

Its nightclub regularly features live bands and top DJs.

The club is now run by entrepreneurs Seb Hall and Alex Fateh, who commissioned GMP and Kribensis to carry out the revamp.

It is not the first alpine ski resort project carried out by the firm.

They have also completed the revamp of the fashionable Coco Club in the Swiss resort of Verbier, recently taken over by London socialite Guy Pelly, a close friend of Prince William.

Kribensis owner Neil Morten said: "Dick's Tea Bar is legendary among skiers, so getting such a prestigious project was a real feather in our cap."

The firm is presently working on a new Atmosphere bar in Stourbridge.

Beat bobbies cop 223 second jobs

MORE than 220 police officers in Staffordshire have second jobs including roles as ski instructors, photographers and writers. A magician, a lorry driver a Thai boxing gym worker and a beekeeper are also among the second jobs.

Eleven per cent are earning extra cash as Staffordshire Police tries to reduce its total 2,016 officers with 223 across all ranks having second jobs. In 2010 there were 205 officers with business interests or second jobs, and last year the figure rose to 223.

A parliamentary committee is to investigate potential conflicts of interest raised by second jobs in police forces countrywide. Labour MP Keith Vaz, chairman of the Home Affairs Select Committee, said conflict of interest was a serious concern.

Any jobs which Staffordshire officers takes on in their spare time have to be cleared with Chief Constable Mike Cunningham.

Sarah Davison, spokesman for Staffordshire Police, said: "Before permission is granted, consideration will be given to a number of issues including the type of secondary work, the number of hours involved and whether it could have an adverse effect on their role within Staffordshire Police."

She said not all applications related to paid employment as permission was also needed to do voluntary work.

Early start on plans for Remembrance service

Students garner support

Terry Baylissleft, and Eric Drinkwater with the Staffordshire Ghana Duke of Edinburgh Award Exchange programme group and leaders

A GROUP of a dozen students from Staffordshire has launched a fund-raising drive to pay for a trip to Ghana. The 16 to 25-year-olds need £19,000 by July for the Staffordshire-Ghana Duke of Edinburgh Award Exchange programme.

Accompanied by four project leaders they are due to jet out to Africa on July 22, a year after their exchange partners visited Britain.

Several fundraisers have already been lined up, including a grand draw at the Mercedes Benz garage in Victoria Road, Stafford, on April

5. People who buy a ticket could win a sports car for a weekend. The draw is expected to raise £2,500. A race night has also been booked, at Grangemoor Working Men's Club Cannock Road, Burntwood, on March 10.

The group converged on Chase-water Outdoor Education Centre in Pool Road, Burntwood, for a day of team-building exercises.

Eric Drinkwater, chairman of the Staffordshire-Ghana exchange programme, said the group will be based near a Catholic youth centre.

PREPARATIONS are already under way for this year's Remembrance service in Cannock, nine months ahead of the event.

Local police officers, who help organise the event, are looking for groups to take part in ceremonies on November 9 and 11.

The 2011 service featured the first Honour Guard, made up of members of the 116 Royal Military Police, which stood at the cenotaph in Cannock town centre, changing on the hour.

Around £1,000 was raised over the week-end with the cash going to the Royal British Legion and local veteran associations.

The organisers are keen to expand on its success by getting more contributors on board.

Sgt Ant Richards, from Cannock Chase local policing team, and Special Sgt Rob Taylor want to hear from firms who can provide entertainment or refreshments and people to help put on a vintage military vehicle display.

Sgt Taylor said: "Last year's event had a great turn-out and everyone was very supportive. Over 300 packs were sent to our troops in Afghanistan as a result of people's donations."

"We want to make this year's event bigger and better," he added.

Contact Special Sgt Taylor at Staffordshire Police on 101 ext 2330 or 07976 648090.

Hospital charity date

A CHARITY fundraiser is being held in Burntwood next month to raise cash for Birmingham Children's Hospital. The event is being held at St Matthews Sports and Social Club in Burntwood, in St Matthews Road, on March 10. People will be able to take part in a raffle for a wealth of prizes and there will also be a disco. For more information call 07974 670578.

SPECIAL SCENIC TRAIN EXCURSION!

FRIDAY 20TH APRIL - "THE SETTLE MOORLANDER"

To CARLISLE via the scenic Settle & Carlisle + Cumbrian Coast Railways (by direct charter train)

Running From: KIDDERMINSTER (around 6.15am), STOURBRIDGE JUNCTION (around 6.30am), ROWLEY REGIS (around 6.45am), TAME BRIDGE PARKWAY (around 7.20am), WALSALL (around 7.30am), CANNOCK (around 7.50am), HEDNESFORD (around 7.55am), RUGELEY TOWN (around 8.10am) & STAFFORD (around 8.30am). All times currently estimates. This one-off day excursion is entirely by direct train formed of traditional Intercity carriages, with pre-reserved seating for all passengers and a buffet service.

OUR SCENIC JOURNEY: Heading north we run via Pendle Hill, North Yorkshire and the famous Settle & Carlisle Railway across the Cumbrian Fells. After a break in Carlisle we return south via the Cumbrian Coast, which as well being the longest Coastal route in England, is considered to be the most scenic! Rural countryside takes us to Maryport and the Solway Coast (just across from Southern Scotland), then via Workington and the rocky coastal route to Whitehaven and St Bees, before heading down-coast to Ravenglass, Millom, Foxfield, Askham and skirting Barrow area. We continue via Dalton, Ulverston, Cark, Grange-over-Sands and Morecambe Bay, near the Lakeland Mountains to Arnsdale, finally passing Silverdale before reaching Carnforth and eventually retracing our steps via the West Coast Mainline back to your joining points, which will be reached by mid to late evening.

CARLISLE: A lunchtime break of up to around 2 hours is expected at Carlisle. You may choose to stroll between the castle, cathedral or indeed the Tullie House Museum – all of which are surrounded by great places to shop, eat or drink. The beauty of Carlisle is that most of the main area of the city is within walking distance of its rail station making it an ideal destination for most visitors.

TICKETS are available at £59 each (STANDARD CLASS – adult), £44 (child under 16 - STANDARD CLASS) & £99 (FIRST CLASS – all ages). These are only available from "Compass Tours". Call 0151 722 1147 (10am-6pm weekdays) for enquiries, seat reservations and debit/credit card bookings, visit www.compasstoursbyrail.co.uk send us an SAE or email info@compasstoursbyrail.co.uk for further details. # Ram-raiders leave trail of damage at car depot

Darren Owen looks at a wrecked Renault Scenic

Mr Owen examines the Ford used by the ram-raiders

RAM-RAIDERS smashed into a Hednesford car spares company, causing thousands of pounds of damage, before fleeing empty-handed in another vehicle.

The raid took place in the early hours of last Friday at Chase Car Spares at Unit 1, in Chaseside Drive. The four intruders responsible are believed to have been on the hunt for valuable metal.

A red Ford KA was used to smash through gates on the site between 12.15am and 1am, but it was left so damaged that the four men inside had to make their getaway in a second vehicle, a Renault Megane. The car was later found completely burned out two miles away.

Chase Car Spares owner Darren Owen, aged 39, said he didn't believe anything had been stolen by the raiders.

He said: "They have made a right mess."

Numbers hurt on the roads down

THE number of people injured on roads in the West Midlands and Staffordshire fell by 1,461, despite cuts in speed camera budgets over the past year.

But the number killed or seriously hurt rose slightly, with seven more deaths in the West Midlands and six more in Staffordshire.

The total number of accidents where people were killed or seriously injured went up from 924 in the West Midlands in 2010 to 972 in 2011 and from 377 to 384 in West Mercia. In Staffordshire it fell from 258 to 245.

Figures from the Department for Transport showed that 58 people were killed in the West Midlands, 39 in Staffordshire and 46 in West Mercia in 2011.

Removing

Overall, 7,546 people were injured in the West Midlands last year compared with 8,701 the year before.

In Staffordshire the figure was 4,442 casualties in 2010 but 4,191 in 2011 – a drop of 251. In West Mercia the number fell by 55 to 3,804.

Councillor Tom Ansell, from the West Midlands Road Safety Partnership Board, said: "We need to look at why accidents happen in the first place."

Sixth decade on and this city shop has success all sewn up

A sewing machine shop launched in 1958 has success all stitched up. CHARLOTTE CROSS reports

MAYBE it's the trend for make do and mend. As major names continue to disappear from the High Street, a charming corner shop is continuing to thrive after more than half a century.

When the Brewers Sewing Machines store was launched in Dudley Road, Wolverhampton, as a sewing machine assembly business in 1958, there were 14 others in the city doing the same thing.

Now it is the only one and its founder, great grandmother of eight, Linda Brewer, is still going just as strong, having celebrated her 104th birthday last week.

Unique

Linda's daughter Kathleen Harvey, who is now at the helm, said more and more people were investing in their own sewing machine, while a weekly sewing workshop set up in July last year has proved so popular staff now hold five sessions a week.

"Sewing has been taken out of the school curriculum and it isn't taught at colleges any more, so people are looking for somewhere to go to help them get to grips with it and how to make the most of their machines," said the 69-year-old, who runs the business with husband Alan.

"We are quite unique, which means we get quite a variety of people through the door. They come from all over the place – some as far away as Ironbridge.

"People come in and say 'oh, I remember when your mum was in here', and they are always surprised when I tell them she's still with us. She is amazing."

Long gone are the days where a sewing machine was powered by a pedal, with simple stitching patterns and laborious methods of changing colours and stitch length.

Now, high-tech machines come with touch screens and pre-programmed patterns, which measures out and embroiders with no need for guidance from a seamstress.

Some of the more expensive models even come with tablets which allow the owner to draw their own embroidery pattern to be downloaded onto the machine, which sews it into the material.

"You have to move with the times. It's a whole different world now," said Mrs Harvey.

Scores of beacons for jubilee

SCORES of beacons will be set alight in the Black Country and Staffordshire as part of the Queen's Diamond Jubilee celebrations in June.

The beacons will be lit as part of community celebrations which also see thousands lit in the UK and other Commonwealth nations.

Councils are organising major events to mark the occasion, with small community halls and churches also taking part. Meanwhile, councils in the region have seen a surge in inquiries about street parties to mark the occasion.

Mountains

The beacons will help to form the largest chain the country has ever seen. They will also be lit at the top of mountains in England, Scotland, Wales and Northern Ireland by wounded soldiers from Help for Heroes, and in the Falkland Islands.

The last time beacons were lit was to celebrate the Queen's Golden Jubilee in 2002. A beacon will also be lit at Stafford Castle, Dudley Castle and at Lichfield's Beacon Park as well as Baggeridge Country Park.

Bilston Town Hall is hosting a jubilee lunch for 200 people on June 3.

Music strikes right note with Peter

Mr Morris with members of the choir in 2009

Peter Morris with senior girls St Peter's Collegiate Church Choir

In choir robes aged 10

FROM a very early age, Peter Morris fell in love with music. He joined his first church choir at the age of eight, and this year celebrates more than 55 years in music.

This includes almost a decade in charge of St Peter's Collegiate Church choir in Wolverhampton, the largest of its kind in the country.

Mr Morris, from Huddersfield, joined his first church choir at Chester Cathedral as a boy, before signing up to one at Manchester Cathedral.

"I knew from a very early age that I wanted to go into music," the 64-year-old said. "I used to sing at both cathedrals every day before and after school. "I would leave the house at 7.30am and get back in at 7.30pm. Singing was my life."

In 1965 Mr Morris enrolled at Durham University, where he studied music and teaching for four years. He moved to the Midlands in 1969 and landed the job of director of music at Blue Coat School in Walsall, where he worked for 22 years. He was also director of music at All Saints Church in West Bromwich.

In 1991 he started at St Peter's Collegiate School in Wolverhampton as director of music where he stayed until 1997.

Queen

"I remember when the Queen visited Wolverhampton in 1994," he said. "The boys' choir at St Peter's Collegiate Church performed in front of her Majesty, while I conducted."

"She sat at the front while the boys performed for her. We also had a brass band up in the balcony that played God Save the Queen. It was very memorable."

Mr Morris was appointed director of music at St Peter's Collegiate Church in 2003. He is currently in charge of the boys, girls and men's choirs, with 100 members in total.

"Music is a massive part of my life," he added. "We have 100 singers in our choir. It is the biggest church choir in the country."

"The choir sings at least three times a week in church services and rehearsal throughout the week."

"I choose the music and I conduct most of the time. I put a huge amount of time and work into it."

Mr Morris's two children, Zoe, 15 and Edward, 13, are both choir members.

Mr Morris, who lives with his wife Jane, 57, who works for the NHS, is also borough organist at Walsall Town Hall, conductor of Wolverhampton Symphony Orchestra and did a long spell as organist of St Matthew's Church, in Walsall from 1977 to 2003.

Gardeners can dig in to growing own food

SEASONED and novice gardeners from the Black Country can get on board the "grow your own revolution" with the second Edible Garden Show.

The show which is dedicated to all things to do with growing your own food was voted UK's Most Popular Garden Event of the Year 2011.

This year's event promises to be bigger and better with a show bursting with celebrity gardeners, chefs, horticultural and livestock experts, innovative products, demonstrations and events for the whole family.

Celebrity Chef John Burton-Race will be conjuring culinary delights in the Cookery Theatre.

BBC TV's award-winning presenter James Wong will be on a mission to tempt gardeners into becoming more adventurous by growing exotic foods.

Botanist

The renowned gardener and botanist, who will be giving daily talks in the Experts Theatre.

The show, at Stoneleigh Park, Warwickshire on March 16-18, aims to inspire growers and anyone seeking a slice of the "Good Life" to plan their year ahead with all manner of labour-saving products on display.

There will be chickens for sale with expert advice from poultry vet Victoria Roberts, polytunnels to help gardeners extend their growing season, and everything from bees, goats and pigs to seeds, sheds, wellies and wormeries.

Expert beekeepers will demonstrate collecting and processing honey, with top tips on how to keep the hive healthy, flourishing and free from disease.

The event will be holding "Potting Parties" where visitors can get advice

GARDENING

Poultry expert Victoria Roberts will be giving advice at the show

Children can get their hands dirty and join in the fun at the event on planting and growing. The British Pig Association will showcase native breeds of pigs and entertain families with daily ring demonstrations. For the children, the BPA's Junior Pig Club will stage their "Pig Olympics".

Grafting

Experts from Suttons Seeds will give presentations on the latest vegetable grafting techniques and advice on growing in small spaces with seeds from the company's popular "For Your Space" brand which includes the Italian and beginners range. This year's show boasts an additional exhibition hall, larger animal marquee and food areas with a wide range of gardening and cookery demonstrations.

Visitors will be able to rub shoulders with our resident experts including broadcaster and writer Pippa Greenwood, celebrity chef Rachel Green and The Edible Garden Show's own 'Grow Your Own' guru Paul Peacock.

Emeli is safe and sound

Emeli Sande - Our Version Of Events
THE Scottish soul songstress is a class act, you can tell that from the way new single Next To Me sounds like it has been around forever. The 24-year-old, who has written songs performed by artists as diverse as Susan Boyle and Cheryl Cole, first reached no.1 as featured singer on Professor Green's Read All About It. Vocally, she is similar to Wolverhampton's own Beverley Knight and her debut album is made up of solid, safe modern soul.

Air - Le Voyage Dans Le Lune
The cool French duo have always had an otherworldly quality, so who better to provide a soundtrack to a restored version of the first sci-fi movie, Georges Méliès' Trip to the Moon. This mood music references Kraftwerk and Pink Floyd (particularly Cirrus Minor). Get the version with the DVD of the 16-minute coloured 1902 movie, with its iconic shot of the man in the moon getting a rocket in the eye.

We Have Band - Ternion
After the reverberated dirge of an opener, this second album from a London outfit featuring dual male-female vocals hits its synth pop stride with a definite 80s vibe, especially on a couple of tracks reminiscent of early Depeche Mode. The new XX maybe?

More West End blockbusters come to the West Midlands

THE BLOCKBUSTER musicals keep coming, following the triumph of Sister Act and packed houses for South Pacific at the Grand and New Alexandra theatres this month.

Sexy Broadway and West End hit Chicago will be aiming to Razzle Dazzle audiences at the New Alex with All That Jazz and a cast of TV names including Hollyoaks and The Bill star Ali Bastian as killer nightclub singer Roxie Hart. Trying to save her from death row in the 1920s-set musical will be her former soap co-star and EastEnders actor Stefan Booth as lawyer Billy Flynn. Coronation Street's Tupele Dorgu plays Roxie's cell block rival, Velma Kelly, and Bernie Nolan will have a ball as Mama Morton, the prison's queen bee.

The show, which was turned into an Oscar-winning movie, was an international hit for the songwriting team of Kander and Ebb and with classic choreography from Bob Fosse. The original 1975 production went on to run for 936 performances in New York and then became a West End hit in 1979, where a revamped production is still being staged. The tour version will be performed in Birmingham from March 5 to 10. The same production will be back to play Wolverhampton Grand from May 14 to 19.

Dickens

One of the most popular of all British musicals, Lionel Bart's Oliver!, comes to Birmingham as Cameron Mackintosh's spectacular West End production hits the road to celebrate the 200th anniversary of the birth of Charles Dickens. Samantha Barks, a finalist in TV's I'd Do Anything, finally gets to play Nancy, the doomed lover of Bill Sykes. The rising star has had a long stint playing Eponine in the London production of Les Misérables and recently won that role in the forthcoming Les Mis movie.

The production that brings such classic songs as Consider Yourself and As Long As He Needs Me will see the role of Fagin shared. Staffordshire-raised former Men Behaving Badly star Neil Morrissey takes the role from March 13 to April 1. Then Brian Conley returns to his second home, after spending last festive season in panto at the Hippodrome, to play Fagin from April 3 until April 21.

Meanwhile, hard-hitting US comedy musical Avenue Q, described as an X-rated Muppet Show, makes its Wolverhampton debut at the Grand on February 28, running to March 3.

Aussie rockers

AUSTRALIAN rockers The Jezabels, featuring the powerful vocals of Hayley Mary, make a rare UK appearance tonight (Thursday) at Birmingham Institute in Digbeth. Debut album Prisoner is out on March 5.

A perfect welcome to ballet

La Fille Mal Gardée, Wolverhampton Grand
THE excellent Russian State Ballet's performance of La Fille Mal Gardée (translated as The Wayward Daughter) is an ideal introduction to ballet. It is light and funny with beautiful music played by a first class orchestra.

It moves along at a cracking pace and is performed with just the right blend of exuberance and finesse.

Lancashire clogging by a pantomime dame produces a blast of friendly warmth. Principal dancers Natalia Bobrova and Vyacheslav Kapustin give pristine performances, the corps are a joy with their expressive body movement and precise footwork.

Comedy gold performances are given by Alexander Kuimov as the dame and Alexei Zevin as the village half-wit.

A noisy Stomp of approval

Stomp, Birmingham Hippodrome
CASTING it's musical magic on the audience, Stomp was big and noisy but also irresistible. It cleverly takes the clutter of every day life, from paint cans to the actual kitchen sink, and creates one hell of an unconventional orchestra.

Metal dustbins, match boxes, tubs, cigarette lighters, water butts and brushes produced a non stop carnival of foot-tapping music.

The cast, affectionately known as the Stompers, dressed in old jeans and dungarees, leaped, spun and skidded around the stage with breathtaking energy and skill to the pounding of their strange musical appliances. Adding brilliant comedy to some routines and audience participation was well received by the audience, who gave a standing ovation.

Big Yin back on the boards

THE BIG Yin, Scots comedian Billy Connolly has in 30 years also become a movie actor and TV traveller but returns to his stand-up roots, trailing controversy over his reaction to hecklers, with his sold-out Big Man Live gigs at Birmingham Symphony Hall tomorrow (Friday) and Saturday.

He will also be playing to a full Wolverhampton Civic Hall on the following Friday and Saturday.

Pandemics and quantum theory

NATHAN Wolfe's The Viral Storm, worryingly subtitled The Dawn of a New Pandemic Age (Allen Lane, paperback, £14.99), takes the biologist out of the jungles where he does research to explain how viruses and mankind have evolved side by side and why the modern world is vulnerable to a global pandemic. He tempers the scenarios that give sleepless nights with suggestions of how killer viruses can be neutralised or even harnessed for good.

Professors Brian Cox (TV's Mancunian physicist with boyish good looks) and Jeff Forshaw continue their mission to bring the wonders of quantum physics to a wider audience with The Quantum Universe: Everything That Can Happen Does Happen (Allen Lane, hardback, £20). Many of these concepts are hard to comprehend but the profs do an admirable job of explaining them clearly.

POINTLESS CELEBRITIES

BBC1, 6.15pm

For a show that prides itself on celebrating obscurity, tea-time quiz Pointless has been gaining rather a lot of attention lately. Not only did it make the move from BBC Two to BBC One last year, but its best-rated episode attracted more than five million viewers and, most prestigiously of all, presenter Alexander Armstrong's 'pointless friend' and co-host Richard Osman was voted the top Weird Crush of 2011 by readers of Heat magazine. Now the programme is about to make even more of a splash as it gets a special, celebrity Saturday night edition. Will the famous faces have that all-important pointless knowledge?

In this second offering, post-traumatic stress sufferer Brody is still having a hard time at home with his family. He's plagued by violent nightmares and hallucinations, and resists media pressure to play the role of the returning war hero. Meanwhile, Saul, who is still not convinced that Brody is working for al-Qaeda, manages to get Carrie's four weeks' surveillance on the record so that she no longer has to hide what she's doing. Observing the footage of life in Brody's home closely, she tries to understand what's going on in his mind, and concludes he's still struggling with the fact that he's become a terrorist. Claire Danes and Damian Lewis head the cast.

Hybrid with plenty of promise

THE CONCEPT of a hybrid vehicle is no longer new. We have Toyota to thank for the broad acceptance of cars that run on electric as well as petrol power.

However, it's the choice of engine that has put some people off. Petrol power is fine if the fuel is cheap. This goes some way to explaining why Toyota – and Honda – hybrids have been so successful in North America. Sadly our 'special relationship' has yet to extend to convincing our cousins across the water that diesel is better.

And that's why diesel hybrids have been absent from the price lists; the American market is the biggest and the most influential.

That's about to change, however, with the introduction of Peugeot's 3008 Hybrid4. Based on a standard 3008, Peugeot has connected an electric powertrain to the car's rear wheels. In an instant you've got an all-wheel drive family crossover vehicle, but you've also got a car that can travel for a mile or so on electric power alone.

In the right conditions it will also pull away from rest in electric mode, reducing the amount of fuel you use and boosting throttle response.

So how does it all work? In simple terms the 3008 Hybrid4 packs a conventional four-cylinder diesel motor under its bonnet. In this case, it's

By Iain Dooley

Peugeot's higher-output 163 horsepower unit.

At the back is the aforementioned electric motor arrangement. This motor can deliver up to the equivalent of 37 horsepower.

The battery pack is automatically charged without the need to plug it in somewhere like with a conventional electric vehicle.

The regenerative process happens when you're off the throttle, and is most obvious from the stronger than usual engine braking – around town it's noticeable that you need to use the brakes less when coasting to a stop. The two power units' connection with the real world is by Peugeot's clutchless manual gearbox.

This will be a familiar unit to Peugeot fans and, while it does have its quirks, with the addition of electric power the automated gear changes feel smoother than in a conventional car.

Out on the road, the 3008 Hybrid4 behaves almost like a regular 3008.

The immediate tell-tale sign is when you turn the key, as not much happens in the noise department. With the default start-up mode electric, it's possible to pull away with just the distant whine of the electric motor. If the car detects more power is required, the diesel engine fires into life. From then on, it's just like driving a diesel-powered 3008, that is until you stop as that's when the engine stops.

Move off and, if there's enough battery charge, you'll power away in electric mode and start the automatic power-juggling cycle again. If there's one thing the hybrid variant does share with its conventional 3008 cousin, it's a rotary controller allowing you to change transmission modes.

To counter the need for a genuinely costly all-wheel drive system, Peugeot adopted a traction control system dubbed Grip Control. The Hybrid4 model goes a step further; you can switch between all electric (EV), power, auto and 4x4 modes. Of course, 'forcing' the car into EV mode will only last for as long as there's sufficient charge in the battery, which means driving gently to achieve the 'couple of miles' goal.

The flipside is the power mode, which unleashes everything the 3008 has for maximum acceleration and performance, while the 4x4 mode engages the rear axle for added traction on slippery grass and muddy tracks.

Predictably, leaving the car in the auto mode seems to work well during general driving duties. The technical competence demonstrated by the 3008 Hybrid4 is but one of its appeal. Peugeot admits its focus is on company car drivers.

CHRONICLE MOTORING Powered by motors.co.uk

The new Fiat Panda goes on sale this month. There is a choice of three models – Pop, Easy and Lounge

There are high hopes for Fiat's new Panda motor

THE NEW Fiat Panda range will start at less than £9,000 when it goes on sale at the end of the month.

At £8,900 on the road, the entry-level five-door Panda Pop is comparable to its rivals. The price will rise to £12,250 for a range-topping diesel Lounge model. The third, mid-range trim option is called Easy.

There will also be three familiar engine choices to begin with, including a 69bhp 1.2-litre, the brilliant 0.9-litre 84bhp TwinAir two-cylinder turbo, and a 75bhp 1.3-litre MultiJet diesel.

Standard kit on basic Pop models includes electric windows, central locking, electric power steering, four airbags and body-coloured bumpers. ESP is not standard, though, and would need to be added as an optional extra.

Upgrading to Easy trim brings remote central locking, air conditioning, roof rails and a better stereo, while finally Lounge receives heated electric mirrors, 15-in alloy wheels, front fog lamps, body-coloured mirrors, door handles and side mouldings.

Collision

The options list allows for two more airbags to be added, as well as a low-speed collision mitigation system that brakes the car automatically at less than 18.6mph if the forward-facing sensors detect an imminent impact.

Fiat is gunning for results in allowing customers to personalise the Panda to a very high degree. The options list is long, but buyers might find that the overall cost can escalate quickly.

"I'm delighted that we remain highly competitive against our key rivals in this small car sector," says Elena Bernardelli, marketing director at Fiat Group Automobiles UK.

"We are particularly good value when you take into consideration the levels of equipment offered in standard specification across the range."

There are better-equipped cars in the price bracket, however, which may have more appeal to buyers' minds. Fiat is likely to be hoping that the new Panda's cute styling wins hearts instead.

The Range Rover is going green

BRITAIN'S car industry of the 1960s and 70s, much of which was based in the Midlands, wasn't the source of many happy memories. That makes it harder to think of the industry today as a shining light among the gloom of the world economic troubles.

But in fact Jaguar Land Rover is one of the companies playing more than its part in driving British industry towards a brave new world, with a multi-million development plan including a new engine plant at Wolverhampton, new cars in the pipeline and no less than 3,000 jobs created in 2011.

The West Midlands car maker is involved in a number of the projects through partnerships with suppliers, government agencies, and universities.

Some 1,000 of those were employed to help develop sustainable technology vehicles such as the prototype Range Rover e, a diesel electric hybrid. The aim is to develop a new range of real world vehicles to tackle the problem of increasingly expensive and scarce oil supplies.

It can run on a 14.2Kw/h electric motor alone for up to 20 miles, or use its standard 3.0 litre V6 diesel engine or a combination of both and although development is still in its early stages, already represents a number of technical advances.

The car looks like a standard Range Rover – the batteries are hidden beneath the rear of the car, where a spare wheel would otherwise be fitted.

Project leader Andy Smith said: "The Range Rover e is a prototype with which to develop and test hybrid technology which has been on trial for a year now.

"We need to explore not only vehicle technology but also such things as charging in streets, at home or city centres, which is a new challenge.

Customers

"We are still learning about what this new technology means for both us and our customers, and need to fully understand what our customers want."

The Range Rover e will run for up to 20 miles on the electric motor alone. For a typical commuter this could mean an emissions-free run to work, plug in to a charging socket during the day, and another emissions-free run home – significantly reducing fuel costs, too.

But the company knows that Range Rover owners don't want a vehicle that is limited to perhaps 100 miles before needing several hours plugged in to a socket. Hence the need for hybrid power, where the diesel engine can be used alone or it can be assisted by the electric motor, thus reducing fuel consumption.

The aim is to bring a viable hybrid Range Rover to the salesrooms by next year, with fuel consumption improved from the 30mpg of today's standard car to an astonishing 85mpg.

Carbon dioxide emissions would also be drastically reduced to some 89g/km, not only helping to save the planet but also saving drivers' wallets, with much reduced vehicle excise duty and company car tax.

The company is confident its future range of greener vehicles will also be good for its sales and British exports.

"There are a number of important markets. China, for example, is going to be an extremely important market for this technology as they are legislating very hard in this field. And, of course, there is also our major market in the United States," Mr Smith said.

Fuel stop – the Range Rover e has a 20 mile radius on its electric motor with a diesel engine back-up

First glimpse of new Vauxhall Astra VXR

The new Vauxhall Astra VXR, which is based on the GTC, will go on display at the Geneva Motor Show

INITIAL details of the next Vauxhall Astra VXR have been released, including power outputs, top speed and equipment.

The car will be based on the Astra GTC, which has already acquired a fine reputation for handling.

Powered by a 276bhp 2.0-litre engine that also pushes out 295lb/ft of torque, its top speed is 155mph – although it's not yet known whether this is organic or limited.

It will feature a mechanical limited-slip differential in conjunction with Vauxhall's HiPerStrut (High Performance Strut) suspension system to create massive cornering grip, and it's safe to assume an attempt will be made on the front-wheel-drive Nurburgring lap record in due course.

Also standard will be the FlexRide adaptive suspension system, which incorporates Sport and VXR buttons in order to offer two different stages of harder, more aggressive damping, steering and throttle response settings.

Aggressive

Two exhausts and a swooping boot spoiler give identity to the rear end, while a revised grille is more aggressive at the front.

The Astra VXR will go on display at the Geneva Motor Show, which opens to the press on March 6.

Brian

No matter what we say, no matter what we do, before we close our eyes at night, we always think of you.

From your loving Nephew Bill, Ann and Family.

Acknowledgements

EDWARDS

Joseph Vincent (Joe)

The Family would like to thank all those who gave their support in our grievance and sad loss of our loving Father

A total sum of £560 in donations was kindly received and this has now been handed to the Principal Officer of Katharine House Hospice at Stafford who graciously accepted these funds.

A particular thank you goes to Anthony Halliwell of Faragher Maguire Funeral Directors for his valued and most professional support and guidance.

May the Lord love and protect our Dad, you will be in our hearts forever.

Joe, Kathy, Trevor, Steven and Families

ORCOTT

John

Irene and Family would like to bestow many, many thanks to St Giles' Hospice, Whittington, for their wonderful care and love during John's illness, to Lynn Wood for her friendship, to all the Carers who helped us look after John and also District Nurses.

Thanks to Reverend David Bishop for a lovely Service and Co-operative Funeral Directors, Brownhills, also Alan for singing beautifully, special thanks to Roy and Maureen and my dear Friend Alice for all their support.

The Family would like to say thank you to all Relatives, Friends and Neighbours who attended the Crematorium and for all donations to St Giles.

God bless you all.

SANDERS

Brian

Dorothy, Graham, Maria, Dave, Helen, Phil and Grandchildren would like to express their thanks to Family, Friends and Neighbours for all cards and messages of condolence and donations of £450 for St. Giles' Hospice.

Special thanks to Lisa, Bin and Julie, St. Giles' Team, Jane, District Nurse, Staff at St. Giles' Hospice, Mid Staffs General Hospital and Chemo Unit, Dr. Myint and Staff, Reverend Peter Harris for a lovely Service and Anthony Halliwell of Faragher Maguire for such professional care and service.

His nature was loving and giving, his heart was made of pure gold and to us who truly love him, his memory will never grow old.

God bless.

From all your loving Family.

WAIN

NOTICE TO READERS
Please be aware that when purchasing a puppy there are some simple guidelines you can follow to ensure that you are not purchasing from a "Puppy Farmer".
1. Try to ensure you visit the puppy whilst it is still with it's Mother.
2. Do not arrange to collect a puppy from any other location than that of the breeder.
3. Ensure that you are given any KC documentation, if pedigree.
Whilst Midland News
Association publications take great care to avoid publication of advertisements from Puppy Farmers we cannot accept any liability should readers purchase from this

Staffordshire County Council

STAFFORDSHIRE COUNTY COUNCIL ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION ACT 1984 (AS AMENDED) ROAD TRAFFIC (TEMPORARY RESTRICTIONS) ACT 1991 Johnson Road, Cannock Division of Vehicular Traffic

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Staffordshire County Council, on 21 February 2012, made an Order the effect of which is to prohibit any vehicle from proceeding in that length of Johnson Road, Cannock in the vicinity of property numbers 53 and 55 unless the vehicle is being used in connection with the works. Limited vehicular access will be available dependent upon the works, but through access will not be permitted, pedestrian access will be maintained.

The preferred alternative route for traffic will be available via Johnson Road, Boswell Road, Lansbury Drive and vice versa.

THE ORDER WILL COME INTO OPERATION ON THURSDAY 01 MARCH 2012, AND THE SAID WORKS WILL COMMENCE ON OR AS NEAR AS PRACTICABLE TO THAT DATE. IT IS ANTICIPATED THAT THE WORKS WILL BE COMPLETED BY TUESDAY 01 MAY 2012.

The Order will remain in force for a period of 18 months or until the repair works to cracks under the highway, which it is proposed to carry out on or near the road, have been completed, whichever is the earlier.

Date: 23 February 2012.

Woodwork in the way of final kick for victory

Rugeley 13 Market Drayton 15
RUGELEY hit the crossbar with a penalty in the dying minutes which would have given them their first win of the season.

The home team started brightly when Adam Grocott kicked a penalty.

Market Drayton put together a series of moves and set plays allowing their Fijian fly-half to take advantage of space and score an unconverted try.

But Rugeley regained the advantage when good set plays from the home pack and support from the backs saw scrum-half Cei Griffin break free and make a 20-metre run for the posts.

Grocott converted to give the home side a 10-5 advantage and added a penalty for good measure as Rugeley led 13-5 at half-time.

Rugeley were proving that despite their league position they have the technical ability and experience to hold any team at any level.

Some sound ball handling from Andy Morecock and Rob Castles allowed the home side to take complete control of the game.

Dangerous

Rugeley looked set to take their first win of the season – but the tide turned and Market Drayton seemed to be regrouping and with their renewed discipline they set their play to take full advantage of the space Rugeley were allowing.

A try was scored after the visiting team's Fijian centre made a dash for the line and left Rugeley's forwards standing.

Market Drayton continued to press the home side but Rugeley held on to their three-point lead tenaciously until with just eight minutes to go Drayton were gifted another try right under the posts to take a 15-13 lead.

Rugeley upped the pace once again this resulting in Market Drayton's discipline being compromised and mistakes were being made and cracks once again becoming apparent with the use of the visitors' props being sin binned for dangerous play.

Rugeley pushed again and with just five minutes to go the visitors conceded a penalty.

Grocott's kick looked a winner, but a gust of wind pushed the ball against the crossbar and back into play.

The game was sponsored by B&J Holdings, Rugeley. Anyone interested in sponsorship can contact the club at rugeleyrugbyclub@gmail.com.

Jack's the lad to clinch points in thriller

Dosthill 2 Burntwood Dragons U9 3
AN ENTERTAINING game saw Burntwood take the lead when Alex Tisdell forced the ball in from Alfie Allan-Smith's shot.

The home side levelled only to find themselves behind again to a long-range effort from Jack Taylor. In the second half Dosthill equalised again, but with the game delicately poised Taylor struck to bag the points for the Dragons.

Hawkins Sports Juniors U12 2 Burntwood Dragons Reds 0
Two late goals from sub Sean Jackson settled this Medal tie as it headed towards extra time. First Jackson sent an unerring finish into the top corner from the edge of the box and then capitalised on a scramble to tap home.

Dragons had enjoyed the better of the early exchanges and Hawkins had to do rely on some dogged defending plus safe handling from keeper Kane Smith.

But the home side rallied in the second half and were unlucky not to score a number of times.

Colton Boys 1 Cresswell Wanderers U13 4
A rusty Cresswell started poorly and conceded an early goal before staging a fightback.

Jack Dunn bagged a brace after some improved play from Wanderers, giving putting them 2-1 up at half-time. Cresswell were far better after the break, Tom Brownlie holding things together as they added goals from Nathan Griffiths and Ryan Brookes as well as hitting bar and post.

Chase Athletic U14 3 Holy Name Manor 4

Chase had earned plaudits with a win over the previously unbeaten league leaders Lichfield, but then lost at home in the Shield to Second Division Holy Name.

Despite finding themselves a goal down, Chase went ahead thanks to goals from Curtis Shipp and Ben Blakeley.

But Holy Name went 4-2 in front before a late Phillip Cooper goal gave Chase hope.

Girls football
Hednesford United U12 12 Brownhills Colts 0

IN TERRIBLE weather Hednesford United ran out easy winners. United scored after nine minutes and the floodgates then opened as confidence grew among the Hednesford players and they led 6-0 at half-time.

Home scorers were Lois Brindley (5), Kate Clinton (4), Lana Titley (2) and Samantha Fawdon.

The team is seeking experienced players in Year 7 as they move to 11-a-side. Visit www.hugfc.com or call 07919 105630.

Hednesford United U14 2 Wyrley Pumas 0

In a strong performance from Hednesford Katie Cox opened the scoring in the first few minutes.

Chloe Taylor secured the win in the second half.

Rugeley U15 4 Stafford Town Girls 1
Rugeley went in at half-time 1-0 down but a change to 4-4-2 turned the tie on its head and Holly Meehan, Chelsea Stevens, Molly Gardner and Meg Farnall scored.

The Dog is racing clear in title hunt

UNBEATEN Cannock Chase Premier League leaders The Dog went three points clear by beating Red, White & Blue 4-0 with two goals from Ash Lawley and one each for Richard Harris and James Vaughan.

Second-placed Rugeley Utd lost 2-1 to Alma while Brereton Town, in third, stunned their neighbours Brereton Social Lion by scoring four goals in the first half-hour. Peter Gladwin and Tom Cunningham bagged two apiece for Town before a late three-goal rally from Social gave them a scare.

Belt Road beat St Matthews 2-1 with both goals scored by Chris Deakin.

In Division One, FC Premier beat Chase Spartans 2-1, with a goal each for Aidan Smith and Dan Hilditch in Spartans' last game of the season.

Ridware Oak beat Colliers Arms 6-1. Jake Hurley scored two penalties, Martin Pitch added two goals and Paul Ecclestone and Simon Martins – with his first of the season – rounded off the scoring.

Second-placed Victoria Athletic's Division Two title hopes took a dent as they lost 4-2 to Harrisons.

Sam Taylor bagged two and Paul Warren and Craig Hyden got one each. Third-placed Cheslyn Hay beat Victoria 4-2 with goals from Tom Duckhouse, Darren Duffy, Richard Neil and Jack Nickson.

Short Heath beat Crystal Fountain 2-1 while Bar Sports won a seven-goal thriller as they edged Broomhill Albion 4-3 with a hat-trick by Richard Hewitt.

Wood's big points haul cannot plug the Leek

SEVENTEEN points from fly-half Matt Wood were not enough to earn a win for Burntwood in SSE Midlands Two West North.

But they did secure a losing bonus point which was a big improvement on their defeat at Leek back in October.

With Rob Cartwright skipping the side in the absence of Graham Shelley, Hal Gozukucuk returning to the back row and hooker Rhys Morgan making his first team debut it was a new-look home side – and it had the ideal start.

After just four minutes a kick downfield was chased by Wood who kicked ahead again to touch down for the first try. He added the conversion to put his side seven points up.

Leek hit back with a sustained attack which eventually gave Gary McDermott three points with a penalty goal after 15 minutes.

Five minutes later Burntwood stretched the visitors' defence after good driving play by Mark Poole, Jack Neal and Gozukucuk. Wood darted through a gap but the ball was lost in contact when a try looked on. However, a Wood penalty made it 10-3.

Wood kept his side on top with a long punt to the bottom corner. From a five-metre scrum the ball was moved left, then right, but the Leek defence held before Burntwood were penalised for side entry at a maul.

With 30 minutes gone Burntwood nearly grabbed a spectacular try. Wood intercepted a pass and raced clean away, only to be brought back for an offside decision which saw McDermott cut the margin to 10-6 with the penalty.

Burntwood 17
Leek 24

Into added time, Leek struck a big blow when their left-winger finished off a move with a try in the corner to leave the hosts trailing by a point.

Ten minutes into the second half, Leek moved further ahead. From a lineout in the bottom corner, the ball was moved into midfield and then back right for a try which was superbly converted from the touchline. The home side fell further behind from penalty which left the score 21-10.

Approaching 70 minutes Burntwood launched their best attack of the half resulting in a stunning try by Wood. Luke Briggs and Neal broke over halfway to feed Wood. He sliced through a gap, chipped and regathered and raced to the line. He also added an excellent conversion.

Four minutes into added time, Leek they secured their win with a fourth penalty.

Jack Neal on the burst for Burntwood firsts in their home loss against Leek

Thirds notch six tries in home win

Burntwood 34 Warley 12

YOUTH and experience combined to give Burntwood thirds a hard-fought victory.

Two tries apiece by skipper for the day Rob England and James Holmes, plus one each for James Wright and Gareth Wedge gave Burntwood the spoils. In addition there were two conversions from Craig Addy.

Willenhall 12 Burntwood U16 50

Burntwood gave a top-class performance to progress to the league semi-final.

They scored quickly with a blindside pass to Ben Tranter who sprinted in for the try.

Willenhall took the lead, but centre Dan Black set up Josh Birch for Burntwood's second try and they never looked back.

Wolves not burnt by youngsters

Wolverhampton 20
Burntwood 17

A VERY young Burntwood seconds outfit took on a much older and experienced Wolverhampton team at Castlecroft and came up agonisingly short.

But fielding a team mostly of under-21s the travelling team gave a good account.

Their undoing was a slow first 10 minutes in which they found themselves 10 points down.

But from the restart Wolverhampton knocked on and as the ball spilled clear, Lewis Aston was quickest to react and fed Luke Rookyard, who raced to the line unopposed.

Burntwood levelled at the start of the second half when Matt Sishton shipped a pass to skipper John Haire.

The home No8 then broke three tackles in midfield to touch down under the posts.

A penalty stretched the lead to 20-10 but Nick Peplow then scored the try of the game after some brilliant individual play by Rookyard, who waltzed his way through a mesmerised defence before popping the ball up to Peplow. Anthony Morgan converted.

Finishing touches clinch it for Hayes

Heath Hayes 3 Rostrevor 1
THIS competitive and at times feisty Midland Alliance weekend derby was settled by some clinical finishing from the home side in a 20-minute first-half spell. The Romans had the better of the early play with the speedy Mensah Kinch setting up a couple of good opportunities which Chris Sterling and Jack Langston failed to convert.

But Hayes went in front on 18 minutes with an excellent goal. Chris Geldart won the ball on the left-hand side and produced a fine cross which Dave Waple volleyed home from 15 yards.

Ten minutes later a good move through midfield saw Joe McNulty find Ben Porter with a good pass which the debutant coolly fired into the corner of the net.

Karl Wallis made it three, heading home another excellent cross from Geldart.

Rostrevor were never out of it but their good approach work was too often spoilt by poor balls into the danger areas. But they were rewarded on the hour when Jordan Nadat's 20-yarder found the bottom corner.

Elliott's fine strike grabs vital point

Hednesford 1 Marine 1
A SECOND-HALF wonder strike by Elliott Durrell secured a point for a below-par Hednesford against their fellow play-off chasers. The first home game at Keys Park since January 7 was threatened by rain and hail before kick-off as volunteers gathered to ensure play could go ahead.

The gusty conditions and heavy pitch were not conducive to attractive football but the visitors threatening more in the first half.

Marine had no less than seven corners and took the lead on 39 minutes when Thomas Moore's free-kick from the left deceived Dan Crane and found the far corner of the net.

The Pitmen emerged from the break with a far better performance and, after Beesley failed to connect with a Durrell cross, the diminutive midfielder picked the ball up 35 yards out, advanced towards goal and hit an unstoppable shot into the roof of the net.

Back together again - Hednesford Town's FA Cup heroes at Keys Park to mark the 15th anniversary of their Riverside exploits

Riverside fever went to the head

Tantalising glimpse of Cup glory with ace Joe

HEDNESFORD were not in the mood to give Middlesbrough anything from the moment their FA Cup bandwagon rolled up at the Riverside Stadium.

It's now 15 years since the Pitmen, flying high in the Vauxhall Conference, travelled to tackle the then-Premier League side in the fourth round.

More than 6,000 Pitmen supporters made the trip on January 25, 1997, for what was originally a home tie, before the game was switched to the Boro ground on police advice.

They watched the non-leaguers make a mighty fist of it, leading for 12 minutes and then keeping the scores at 1-1 for over an hour, before losing 3-2.

All that was left was for the players to grab a memento of the occasion, a shirt from one of the backs of their illustrious opponents.

Joe O'Connor got Gianluca Festa, Gary Fitzpatrick landed Jan-Aage Fjortoft, Wayne Simpson finished with Juninho and Steve Essex grabbed Fabrizio Ravanelli.

But there was no chance of Ravanelli getting a Hednesford shirt of his own, quipped Pitmen boss and co-owner John Baldwin straight after the game.

Consolation

He said: "I wouldn't have let him have one - they cost us nearly £25."

It remains the club's greatest-ever run in the Cup and, after much "where are they now?" questioning, the players and staff from that day have been reunited.

It was the club's supporters association that made it happen and, last Saturday night, fans took a trip down memory land in the function room at Keys Park.

Two-goal hero O'Connor was the "team poacher" back then who worked in a chemical factory and, today, is still in the trade as a production manager.

The Wolverhampton-born striker is now 44 but can still play a bit, turning out for the Wolverhampton Casuals when they were short of players a couple of weeks ago.

O'Connor stands tall as a Pitmen legend and remains the club's record goalscorer, post war, with 220 goals from 1990 to 1998.

It was over 20 years ago that he pulled on a Hednesford shirt for the first time but O'Connor insists the trip to the Riverside feels like yesterday.

He said: "It never really hit me until you walked out on to the pitch and we took all we could get from it."

"The first goal was a loose ball, I just latched on to it and hit it on the turn, the next thing I know it's in the back of the net."

"We had a pre-planned dance, we all ran to the corner flag and did the limbo under it."

"Unfortunately, it was right in front of the Middlesbrough fans, but we still managed to do it."

"The second one was better, I managed to get a head on it and that was nice, right in front of the supporters."

"The fans cheered more for us after the game than when the goals went in - that's what the players remember and cherish."

Hednesford came within four minutes of forcing a replay, only to cave in to strikes from Fjortoft and Ravanelli.

They had been deadlocked for 61 minutes, after O'Connor's opener was cancelled out by captain Colin Lambert's own goal.

O'Connor hit the post with his team 2-1 down and grabbed a consolation to make it 3-2, but was happy to go out in a "blaze of glory".

Cannock shrug off knockout to go top

Surbiton 1 Cannock 2

CANNOCK bounced back from their English Hockey Cup exit to win at Surbiton and go top of the National Premier League.

Surbiton started brightly, but some timely interceptions by South African international Ashlin Freddy and Cannock captain Ross Hayward snuffed out the threat.

The home team won a short corner, but it was charged down by enforcer Marc Edwards, and Cannock's instant counter-attack led to the first goal.

Will Hearn's reverse strike was parried by the Surbiton keeper, conceding a short corner which Dave Harris converted for his 10th goal of the season low to the keeper's right.

Cannock began to take control, with England under-18 duo Arjan Chana and Tom Morris a constant irritant to the south Londoners' pedestrian defence.

Promotion

Cannock's pressure led to another short corner and again Harris found the target, his drag-flick scorching beyond the keeper.

Cannock, two up at the break, should have looked to extend their lead. Instead, they found themselves fighting a defensive battle with England keeper Patrick Smith repeatedly called into action and Surbiton, led by former Cannock player Tim Deakin, forcing a flurry of penalty corners.

Players on each side were carded as tempers rose.

Surbiton gave themselves hope with two minutes left, converting a short corner, but Cannock held firm and are now two points clear with five games to play.

The next is on Sunday (2.30pm) as Reading visit.

Cannock 8 Stourport 0

Cannock fourths stepped up their promotion push in the Ener-G Midland Central Premier with a big win over bottom side Stourport.

Goals came from a Dan Bost hat-trick, Louie Morris, George Southall (2), Callum Stacey and Jeevan Dhandha.

Cannock 3

Telford & Wrekin 1
Cannock fifths confirmed their Midlands North West One promotion after winning their 13th match out of 14 this season.

Goals from Tim Butler, Raff Moscatiello and Don Clark saw Karl Owen's men achieve the target that had been set from day one of the season.

Hero Ryan and Dean equaliser foil leaders

Chasetown 1 Chester 1

DEAN PERROW'S late goal earned Chasetown a point against Evo-Stik Northern Premier League leaders Chester.

Goalkeeper Ryan Price was the hero of the day with a string of fine saves, including a penalty stop, while Perrow was unlucky not to add to his 84th-minute equaliser in the closing seconds.

Chasetown's first chance of the day came courtesy of a Mark Branch free-kick but Perrow's attempt was cleared, while skipper George Horan headed a long ball into the box wide for the visitors on eight minutes.

Horan departed on 36 minutes after colliding with home keeper Price.

The tight midfield play meant the hosts were struggling to create chances, while Jimmy Turner and recent signing Scott Lycett were doing well to snuff out the table-toppers.

Price punched away a corner to begin the second half, but three minutes later the Scholars were caught out down the right and Antoni Sarcevic broke clear to slide the ball under Price's body and open the scoring.

Home skipper Richard Teesdale cleared a cross off the line on 59 minutes as Chester began to dominate.

Kidderminster Harriers loanee Jack Cresswell made his Chasetown debut when he replaced Mark Hands midway through the half.

Chester were awarded a penalty after a foul by Chris Slater but Price dived low to his right to cling on to Matty McGinn's spot-kick.

With six minutes to go Chasetown equalised against all the odds when a Mark Branch free-kick found Perrow and he glanced in a header.

Hat-trick served up by Porter

Heath Hayes 4 Continental Star 2

THIS JW Hunt Cup fixture was effectively all over after half-an-hour as Hayes raced into a four-goal lead.

A corner on the left from Joe McNulty was headed home by Ben Porter as Hayes romped through Tuesday night's tie.

Five minutes later Star keeper Alan Pringle had to race from his line to foil Chris Geldart but his clearance landed at the feet of Porter who coolly lifted the ball over the stranded keeper and into the net from 45 yards.

A fine move down the left ended with full-back Luke Jones' superb cross being hammered home by Porter to give him a 20-minute hat-trick.

Hayes continued to dominate and several gill-edged chances went begging with leading scorer Dave Waple the main culprit.

However, Chris Geldart finished off another fine move to put the home side four up after 30 minutes.

Hayes introduced three subs at the break and had a few anxious moments late on when Star's James Haven scored in the 85th and 87th minutes.

Reserves cruise through to final

Chasetown Res 3 Burntwood Town 0

THREE first-half goals saw Chasetown Reserves march into the final of the Staffordshire Challenge Cup where they will face Cheadle Town.

After constant pressure Chasetown took the lead in the 20th minute of Tuesday's match when Matt Wood's free kick provoked a period of pinball in the penalty area before Jamie Aiton forced the ball in.

Further goals from Jordan Archer and Courtney Sowe made it 3-0.

PITMEN FAITHFUL IN MEMORY LANE TRIP

HEDNESFORD Town supporters turned back the clock to celebrate the 15th anniversary of the club's celebrated 1996-97 FA Cup run.

Squad members and former officials joined fans at Keys Park to go over the memories. Those present included Steve Essex, Andy Comyn, Stuart Lake, John Baldwin and Joe O'Connor. Highlights of all the games in the run were played. O'Connor, the Pitmen's record goalscorer, was the hero of Saturday night as the fans who attended cheered his Riverside opening goal on the big screen.

Organiser Scott Smith hailed the night as a resounding success and thanked those who attended.

"The evening really was enjoyable and was a superb way to celebrate the anniversary," he said.

"The raffle and tickets assisted in raising funds for the supporters' association and I would like to express my gratitude to the players, staff and supporters who made the night such a resounding success."

Signed

Smith presented current chairman Steve Price and former chairman Baldwin with a signed Middlesbrough shirt to commemorate the event.

Club secretary Terry McMahon said: "It was great to see our younger supporters remembering that famous day and working so hard for the club to stage the event."

"All those who attended had a great evening and the appearance of members of the 1996-97 squad was fantastic."

Meanwhile, Hednesford defender Cheyenne Dunkley was preparing to go on trial to Championship club Birmingham and figure for Blues in a reserve game.

Dunkley will train with the St Andrew's club and play for their second-string in a fixture against Coventry next Tuesday night, with permission from the Pitmen.

The lynchpin centre-back, who turned 20 last week, will be hoping for a second chance at professional football after he was released from Crewe in May 2010.

Along with midfielder Chris Clements, they both found a home back at Keys Park after successful loan spells and have played at semi-pro level ever since.

The departure of Pedro Monteiro to Hayes & Yeading last month saw Dunkley lead the Pitmen defence and manager Rob Smith would be loathe to lose him.

But all Smith can do now is wait as his side prepare to head to struggling Frickley on Saturday, where Dunkley could be involved ahead of his match with Blues.

The manager wants to arrest a slide that has seen Hednesford win just two out of nine games this year.
